PREFACE TO THE SEVENTH EDITION.

ENCOURAGED by the favourable way in which the Sixth Edition has been received by the Profession, and by the general approval which all the Taxing Masters gave to the book, I undertook months ago the labour of editing a Seventh Edition. Owing to the many changes which have been made from time to time since the issue of the last Edition, all of which I have endeavoured to introduce into the present Edition, the labour of carrying this out has been very great, and such as I could not have accomplished without help, which I received in a most generous manner from many officers of the different branches of the Court and others. I tender my best thanks to all such who have rendered me assistance. Although in the present Edition the general arrangement of the last Edition is preserved, I desire to explain that the Index to the Rules, Fees to Solicitors, &c., beginning at page 70, is in no way to be connected with the general Index, page 643. This Index to Rules has been prepared at very great labour, and is admitted to be of the utmost use to the practitioner, who, with its assistance, can find, immediately, any matter or detail relating to costs.

The Solicitors' Remuneration Act, which is so difficult of construction, has been most carefully considered and precedents prepared under it, which, I submit, will be of service to the practitioner. In these precedents I have had the able assistance of my friends and colleagues, Mr. H. Mills and Mr. C. W. Scott. There are more than thirty precedents beyond those in the last Edition, many of which will be useful.

My colleagues Mr. Norton and Mr. Laybourn have, as before, assisted me, and I thank them. To my colleague Mr. C. W. Scott, I have from the commencement of preparing this work to the end received unremitted help, not only in assisting me with the alterations and construction of the book, but in the hard work of examining and correcting the proofs, and in looking up and correcting the many doubtful questions to be solved. Without his generous help I could hardly have made such a satisfactory completion of the book, and I render him my most grateful thanks.

PREFACE TO THE SIXTH EDITION.

THE Compiler, although having had over thirty years' experience in connection with the Law (fourteen years in two of the best London offices, three years as one of the Chancery Judges' Junior Clerks, and more than twenty years fulfilling his present office of Principal Clerk to one of the Chancery Taxing Masters), has nevertheless felt considerable diffidence in undertaking the task of editing this Sixth Edition of the Guide to Costs. He was encouraged to undertake the duty from the knowledge that many friends, colleagues, members of the profession, and officers of the Court, would readily assist him in cases of difficulty. Without such assistance it would have been impossible to satisfactorily prepare precedents of costs in so many branches.

He is under obligations to many, for suggestions and assistance, and to those he begs to tender his earnest thanks, particularly to his colleagues, Mr. Hy. Mills, Mr. F. Norton, Mr. Laybourn, and Mr. Gardner, and to Mr. Tattershall and Mr. T. H. O. Gardiner.

The Compiler hopes that the precedents, most of which have been taken from taxed bills, and are submitted with confidence, will meet with the favourable consideration of the profession, and assist in the laborious work of bill-making.

It is not intended that any of these precedents should dispense with the necessity for making daily records of actual work in special attendances and letters. Neglect of this essential duty, so frequently overlooked, involves great trouble and loss to practitioners. All attendances and letters of a special character should be introduced with dates.

Great labour has been bestowed on the preparation of the Index to the Solicitors' Charges and Fees, which is added to this work for the first time, and, it is hoped, will be the means of assisting by easy reference all whose duties require them to make out Bills of Costs, and whose memories do not enable them to retain all the charges allowed by the Rules.

In placing the book in its present form before the profession, the Compiler must, of course, leave to others the right of approving or condemning; but as this is his first essay, he claims the indulgence of critics for any inaccuracies, and will be grateful for any corrections and suggestions which, if success follow this publication and subsequent editions be required, shall have careful attention.

Future Editions will include Precedents in—

BANKRUPTCY,
SETTLED ESTATES ACT,
LORD MAYOR'S COURT, AND LAND REGISTRY CHARGES.

PRACTICAL DIRECTIONS FOR TAXING COSTS.

Chancery Division.

The Compiler asks all who take up this book to make themselves acquainted with the system adopted of reference, in the Index and Precedents, by numbers to the corresponding numbers which appear in a print of the Rules and Schedules under the Judicature Acts preceding the Index.

The following few practical suggestions as a guide to young practitioners in taxing costs in the Chancery Division will be found useful.

The numbers before each item in the Index refer to corresponding numbers in the Order and Schedules.

In settling an order directing costs to be taxed, see that it properly provides for all costs intended to be allowed.

If order printed, bespeak enough copies of the printer so that there shall be one copy for the Taxing Master.

The original order directing a taxation must, to obtain a reference to a Taxing Master, be left with the Sitting Master one day and called for the next. The name of the Sitting Master can always be found exhibited in the lobby of the Taxing Master's Office at the Royal Courts of Justice.

Notices to discontinue, and requests from Chambers or other Divisions, should be treated as orders, and the copy notice served, and original requests, should be left for a reference to tax in the same way as an order is; and a copy of the notice or request, including the reference upon it, should be carried into the proper Taxing Master's Office, with the bill of costs claimed.

The form of the necessary certificate of no former reference, and the words of the reference, will be found at page 69. This certificate should not be given until after being satisfied, by searching the books or otherwise, that no previous reference has been given, because of the great trouble and delay which is caused should a second reference by inadvertence be obtained.

The words of reference and certificate should be written on the original order.

Having got the reference, take the original order to the Taxing Master named in the reference, with a complete copy, adding the certificate and reference to the copy. If the order is printed, a print must be taken. Leave the copy, certified as a true copy of the original, as passed and entered, and have the original with you for examination or reference by the Master's Clerk as may be required. If the solicitor having the carriage of the order has any bill to tax under the order he should take his bill of costs at the same time, written on white paper, with the dates in the body, the year and month on every page. The left-hand column should not have any money lines, as they often cause mistakes and confusion. The papers, receipts for Counsels' fees, and other payments charged for in the bill should be left at the same time, properly arranged in order as they are charged in the bill—consecutively, not in separate bundles—the receipts for payments forming part of the papers. If attention is paid to this, much time is saved, not only to the Masters and Clerks, but to practitioners also. The time occupied by solicitors and their clerks in satisfying queries made, mostly for want of care and attention in arranging properly and leaving papers and vouchers, is very great, and might be saved if these suggestions were carried out.

A form of Warrant should be obtained, and filled up with name of action, &c. All that the Master's Clerk should have to do with Warrants is to fill in the return and sign the Master's name, and obliterate the stamp, if any. If the costs are not payable out of any funds in Court, a 3s. stamp should be placed on each Warrant.

The Warrant should be served upon all persons entitled to attend on the taxation.

When any party entitled to costs refuses or neglects to bring in or complete his costs, a Warrant to bring in or to allow such party a nominal sum should be applied for, and on the return of the Warrant the Master should be asked to name a time when such costs are to be left or completed, or to name a sum at which they shall be certified, and in default of the costs being left or completed such certificate should issue.

In case it is necessary to prove the service of any Warrant upon parties failing to attend, an affidavit may be used, indorsed upon the back of the Warrant to Tax, and deposed to before the Master, or (in case the service is made out of London) before a Commissioner (see form of affidavit p. 69).

It is essential that the person serving the Warrant should at the same time produce the original. Service by post is not good service.

When all the bills of costs directed to be taxed under the order, together with all papers and vouchers, and Chief Clerk's Certificate of Attendances (if any) have been left, the solicitor having the carriage of the order should take a Warrant as before, and obtain an appointment to tax all the bills, and serve the Warrant upon all parties interested.

If there be any items queried after the Master has taxed, an appointment should be obtained to dispose of such as require the Master's decision. If any remain for the Principal Clerks, they can be disposed of any morning, except Saturdays, between 11 and 12, without taking any appointment.

As a rule, every person who has a substantial interest in the funds out of which the costs are to be paid, is entitled to attend the taxation; but, where there are several solicitors representing different persons whose interests are the same, one of a class only should attend; and in case of difficulty in determining who this should be, a Warrant to proceed upon the order should be obtained, and the Master's directions taken thereon accordingly.

The bill, having been completely taxed, should be accurately cast, and a summary on a separate sheet made of the amount of the bill and taxings off, and the bill left for the certificate. Ascertain that all the bills are ready for certificate, pay the fees of taxation (if any), a ticket for which, stating the amount, will be given by the Master's Clerk, as an authority to the Court Stationer, who will receive amount and also his charge for engrossing certificate. In ordinary cases the Master's certificate will be ready one clear day after all bills are ready and the fees paid and the certificate bespoken.

Service of Warrants to Tax, where defendants have not entered any appearance, should be made in the same way as other proceedings after Writ are served.

Whenever there is any fund in Court out of which the costs are ordered to be paid, it is unnecessary to pay fees by stamps, as the amount of the fees payable will be certified on the completion of the taxation, and the fees carried over to the account of the Receiver General of Inland Revenue.

It is well to remember that, whenever an order directs costs to be taxed in case parties differ, it is necessary that the bills of costs should be in the Office eight clear days before any Warrant to Tax can be issued.

Young practitioners would derive much assistance in the conduct of proceedings by referring to the different precedents.

Queen's Bench Division.

All bills of costs should be taken to the Taxing Department (Room 180) for the purpose of being entered, numbered, and stamped before being taxed.

Bills of costs in actions assigned to a Master under Order V., Rule 6 (Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883) must be taxed before the Master to whom the action is assigned, except during any vacation, or through illness of the Master, or other urgent cause, when another Master may act for him.

In cases where the bills are short, and will not occupy much time in taxing, it is unnecessary to obtain an appointment to tax, and the copy bill may be delivered to the other side with a notice endorsed of the day and hour when the bill will be taxed; it is usual to give such appointments for 11 o'clock, a.m.; as, however, the Masters are on some days at Judges' Chambers, and on others in Court, it is necessary to ascertain the days on which any particular Master will be in attendance for taxing. A rota of such attendance is posted up in the Solicitors' Waiting Rooms, and in the Taxing Department (Room 180), the Masters' messengers are also supplied with a copy of this rota, and are always willing to give any necessary information to the profession.

Where bills are long, or special, and will take some time to tax, it is advisable to obtain a special appointment from the Master himself; the bill should first be entered in the Taxing Department, and then taken to the Master for an appointment.

In all cases bills should be carefully cast after taxation, and a summary made of the amount of the bill and the taxings off, the bill should then be taken to the Taxing Department to have the taxing fee assessed and the stamps cancelled before getting the certificate signed by the Master.

After a bill has been entered in the Taxing Department books, if it should be found from any cause unnecessary to tax it, the bill should be taken back to be struck out of the books. Attention to this rule will save much trouble to practitioners and the officers of the Court, as all bills entered in the Court books are written for if not filed within a reasonable time after being entered.

Crown Office.

Before proceeding to tax the solicitor must produce the authority for the taxation to one of the clerks in the Crown Office, and leave there a copy of the bill to be taxed, whereupon an appointment to tax will be given, which must be served upon the opposite party. The costs will be taxed at the appointed time unless there be some good cause for postponement. The Master may proceed ex parte on the first appointment which is made peremptory, and the party on whom the same shall be served must attend such appointment without waiting for another. The usual practice is to wait half-an-hour before proceeding to tax ex parte.

After the taxation the parties should agree the amount at which the bill has been taxed, and upon stamps being affixed to the bill for the taxing fee the Master will give his allocatur by endorsing it upon the rule or other authority for the taxation.

Probate and Divorce Division.

Separate bills of costs of and arising from motions and orders thereon, or from summonses and orders thereon, or costs for decrees absolute, shall not be received and filed for taxation.

The amount allowed for costs of a motion will be inserted in the order thereon, unless otherwise directed, by the Registrar who draws up the order.

The ordinary costs of a summons and order, £2, will be inserted in the order.

The ordinary costs of a party summoned will be 6s. 8d., which will also be inserted in the order.

When a decree nisi pronounced before 25th January, 1884, is made absolute after that date, the ordinary costs of the decree absolute will be £2 13s. 10d., and when a decree nisi pronounced on or after that date is made absolute, such costs will be £2 3s. 10d., and in case the costs of the cause have already been taxed, an order will issue at once on the decree being made absolute for payment of such sum.

When the pleadings are completed and the action ready to be set down for hearing, the wife's costs may be filed for taxation—and at the same time application can be made to the Taxing Registrar to fix the amount of the wife's further costs for the hearing. The amount so fixed may be ordered to be paid into the registry (or to the Paymaster in Chancery, as may be directed), or bond given in the penal sum of double the amount so estimated under the hand of the husband and two sufficient sureties.

On filing the bill at the Divorce Registry a deposit fee of 1s. for every £3 of the total amount of the costs and 2s. 6d. for filing is paid. The bill is sent up to the Taxing Registrar and an appointment in following form is forwarded in due course.

PROBATE AND DIVORCE REGISTRY,

against

Mr. Registrar has appointed day, the day of , 188 , at o'clock, to tax the Bill of Costs filed in this cause.

N.B.—The party obtaining the appointment is to give the other parties to be heard on taxation at least one clear day's notice of the appointment, and at the same time deliver to them a copy of the bill to be taxed.

If on leaving the bill an early appointment is required, a letter setting forth the necessity should be addressed to the Taxing Registrar—otherwise bills are taxed in the order of their being filed.

Should an earlier taxation be desired a summons must be taken out "to show cause why the bill should not be taxed."

The husband's bill against the co-respondent can be filed after the decree nisi is pronounced. Such costs are ordered to be paid into the Registry pending the decree being made absolute.

Probate bills are filed after the cause has been heard.

Admiralty Division.

Bills of costs for taxation in the Admiralty Division should be left in the Registry with a certificate endorsed stating that a copy of the bill has been served on the solicitors of each of the parties entitled to attend the taxation, and setting out the names of the various solicitors. A notice of the day appointed for the taxation will thereupon be sent from the Registry to the various parties.

After the taxation the parties should attend in the Registry, and agree the amount at which the bill has been taxed, and a certificate of the taxation, if required, is then prepared in the Registry and signed by the Registrar.

Bankruptcy Division.

All bills of costs for taxation in bankruptcy must be copied on draft paper lengthwise, on one side only, leaving the left-hand margin clear for the Master's disallowances. Dates must be furnished to each item.

At the top of the front sheet the following particulars should be given:—

As to whether the assets are above or below £300;

On a Trustee's Solicitor's Bill the names of trustee and Committee of Inspection;

On a Debtor's Solicitor's Costs of Petition a certificate as to what amount has been received on account.

The bills must be lodged in the Master's Office, and an appointment will then be made for taxation.

Notice of the day and time appointed must be served by the party taking out the appointment on the proper parties entitled to attend.

Where costs are to be taxed under an order, an office copy of the order must be lodged with the bill.

TO THE

PREPARATION OF BILLS OF COSTS.

Extract from Orders and Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883.

The following Orders and Rules may be cited as "The Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883," they shall come into operation on the 24th day of October, 1883, and shall also apply so far as may be practicable (unless otherwise expressly provided), to all proceedings taken on or after that day in all causes and matters then pending.

Order II., Rule 2. Any costs occasioned by the use of any forms of writs, and of indorsements thereon, other or more prolix than the forms hereinafter prescribed, shall be borne by the party using the same, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct.

Order III., Rule 7. Wherever the plaintiff's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand only, the indorsement, besides stating the nature of the claim, shall state the amount claimed for debt, or in respect of such demand, and for costs respectively, and shall further state, that upon payment thereof within four days after service, or in case of a writ not for service within the jurisdiction within the time allowed for appearance, further proceedings will be stayed. Such statement shall be in the Form in Appendix A, Part III., sec. III. The defendant may, notwithstanding such payment, have the costs taxed, and if more than one-sixth shall be disallowed, the plaintiff's solicitor shall pay the costs of taxation.

Order XVI., Rule 1. All persons may be joined as plaintiffs in whom the right to any relief claimed is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative. And judgment may be given for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to, without any amendment. But the defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by so joining any person who shall not be found entitled to relief, unless the Court or a Judge in disposing of the costs shall otherwise direct.

Order XVI., Rule 31. Costs ordered to be paid to a person admitted to sue or defend as a pauper shall, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct, be taxed as in other cases.

Order XIX., Rule 2. The plaintiff shall, subject to the provisions of Order XX., and at such time and in such manner as therein prescribed, deliver to the defendant a statement of his claim, and of the relief or remedy to which he claims to be entitled. The defendant shall, subject to the provisions of Order XXI., and at such time and in such manner as therein prescribed, deliver to the plaintiff his defence, set-off, or counter-claim (if any), and the plaintiff shall, subject to the provisions of Order XXIII., and at such time and in such manner as therein prescribed, deliver his reply (if any) to such defence, set-off, or counter-claim. Such statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and the taxing officer in adjusting the costs of the action shall at the instance of any party, or may without any request, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity, and order the costs occasioned by such prolixity to be borne by the party chargeable with the same.

Order XIX., Rule 5. The Forms in Appendices C, D, and E, when applicable, and where they are not applicable forms of the like character, as near as may be, shall be used for all pleadings, and where such Forms are applicable and sufficient any longer forms shall be deemed prolix, and the costs occasioned by such prolixity shall be disallowed to or borne by the party so using the same, as the case may be.

Order XXII., Rule 7. The plaintiff, when payment into Court is made before delivery of defence, may within four days after the receipt of notice of such payment, or when such payment is first signified in a defence, may before reply, accept in satisfaction of the claim or cause of action in respect of which such payment has been made the sum so paid in, in which case he shall give notice to the defendant in the Form No. 4 in Appendix B, and shall be at liberty, in case the entire claim or cause of action is thereby satisfied, to tax his costs after the expiration of four days from the service of such notice, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order, and in case of non-payment of the costs within forty-eight hours after such taxation, to sign judgment for his costs so taxed.

Order XXVI., Rule 1. The plaintiff may, at any time before receipt of the defendant's defence, or after the receipt thereof before taking any other proceeding in the action (save any interlocutory application), by notice in writing, wholly discontinue his action against all or any of the defendants or withdraw any part or parts of his alleged cause of complaint, and thereupon he shall pay such defendant's costs of the action, or, if the action be not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn. Such costs shall be taxed, and such discontinuance or withdrawal, as the case may be, shall not be a defence to any subsequent action. Save as in this Rule otherwise provided, it shall not be competent for the plaintiff to withdraw the record or discontinue the action without leave of the Court or a Judge, but the Court or a Judge may before, or at, or after the hearing or trial, upon such terms as to costs, and as to any other action, and otherwise, as may be just, order the action to be discontinued, or any part of the alleged cause of complaint to be struck out. The Court or a Judge may, in like manner, and with the like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant, order the whole or any part of his alleged grounds of defence or counter-claim to be withdrawn or struck out, but it shall not be competent to a defendant to withdraw his defence, or any part thereof, without such leave.

Order XXVI., Rule 3. Any defendant may enter judgment for the costs of the action, if it is wholly discontinued against him, or for the costs occasioned by the matter withdrawn, if the action be not wholly discontinued, in case such respective costs are not paid within four days after taxation.

Order XXVIII., Rule 13. The costs of and occasioned by any amendment made pursuant to Rules 2 and 3 of this Order shall be borne by the party making the same, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order.

Order XXXI., Rule 3. In adjusting the costs of the cause or matter inquiry shall at the instance of any party be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the Court or Judge, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

Order XXXI., Rule 25. In every cause, or matter, the costs of discovery, by interrogatories or otherwise, shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, be secured in the first instance as provided by Rule 26 of this Order, by the party seeking such discovery, and shall be allowed as part of his costs where, and only where, such discovery shall appear to the Judge at the trial, or, if there is no trial, to the Court or a Judge, or shall appear to the taxing officer, to have been reasonably asked for.

Order XXXI., Rule 26. Any party seeking discovery by interrogatories shall, before delivery of interrogatories, pay into Court to a separate account in the action, to be called, "Security for Costs Account," to abide further order, the sum of £5, and, if the number of folios exceeds five, the further sum of 10s. for every additional folio. Any party seeking discovery otherwise than by interrogatories shall, before making application for discovery, pay into Court, to a like account, to abide further order, the sum of £5, and may be ordered further to pay into Court as aforesaid such additional sum as the Court or a Judge shall direct. The party seeking discovery shall, with his interrogatories or order for discovery, serve a copy of the receipt for the said payment into Court, and the time for answering or making discovery shall in all cases commence from the date of such service. The party from whom discovery is sought shall not be required to answer or make discovery unless and until the said payment has been made.

Order XXXI., Rule 27. Unless the Court or a Judge shall at or before the trial otherwise order, the amount standing to the credit of the "Security for Costs Account," in any cause or matter, shall after the cause or matter has been finally disposed of be paid out to the party by whom the same was paid in on his request, or to his solicitor on such party's written authority, in the event of the costs of the cause or matter being adjudged to him, but, in the event of the Court or Judge ordering him to pay the costs of the cause or matter, the amount in Court shall be subject to a lien for the costs ordered to be paid to any other party.

Order XXXII., Rule 2. Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions ; and in case of refusal or neglect to admit, after such notice, the costs of proving any such document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the cause or matter may be, unless at the trial or hearing the Court or a Judge shall certify that the refusal to admit was reasonable ; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice be given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the taxing officer, a saving of expense.

Order XXXII., Rule 4. Any party may, by notice in writing, at any time not later than nine days before the day for which notice of trial has been given, call on any other party to admit, for the purposes of the cause, matter, or issue only, any specific fact or facts mentioned in such notice. And in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same within six days after service of such notice, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court or a Judge the costs of proving such fact or facts shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the cause, matter, or issue may be, unless at the trial or hearing the Court or a Judge certify that the refusal to admit was reasonable, or unless the Court or a Judge shall at any time otherwise order or direct. Provided that any admission made in pursuance of such notice is to be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular cause, matter, or issue, and not as an admission to be used against the party on any other occasion or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice : Provided also, that the Court or a Judge may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as may be just.

Order XXXII., Rule 9. If a notice to admit or produce comprises documents which are not necessary, the costs occasioned thereby shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

Part of Order XXXV., Rule 4. Where final judgment is entered in the District Registry, costs shall be taxed in such Registry unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order.

Order XXXVI., Rule 40. The Registrar, Master, or other proper officer present at any hearing or trial shall make a note of the times at which such hearing or trial shall commence and terminate respectively, on each day on which the same shall take place, for communication to the taxing officer if required.

Order XXXVI., Rule 57. In every action or proceeding in the Queen's Bench Division in which it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that the amount of damages sought to be recovered is substantially a matter of calculation, it shall not be necessary to issue a writ of inquiry, but the Court or a Judge may direct that the amount for which final judgment is to be entered shall be ascertained by an officer of the Court, and the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents before such officer may be compelled by subpœna, and such officer may adjourn the inquiry from time to time, and shall indorse upon the order for referring the amount of damages to him the amount found by him, and shall deliver the order with such indorsement to the person entitled to the damages, and such and the like proceedings may thereupon be had as to taxation of costs, entering judgment, and otherwise, as upon the finding of a jury upon a writ of inquiry.

Order XXXVIII., Rule 2. Every affidavit shall be intituled in the cause or matter in which it is sworn; but in every case in which there are more than one plaintiff or defendant, it shall be sufficient to state the full name of the first plaintiff or defendant respectively, and that there are other plaintiffs or defendants, as the case may be; and the costs occasioned by any unnecessary prolixity in any such title shall be disallowed by the taxing officer.

Order XXXVIII., Rule 3. Affidavits shall be confined to such facts as the witness is able of his own knowledge to prove, except on interlocutory motions, on which statements as to his belief, with the grounds thereof, may be admitted. The costs of every affidavit which shall unnecessarily set forth matters of hearsay, or argumentative matter, or copies of or extracts from documents, shall be paid by the party filing the same.

Order XXXVIII., Rule 7. Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person, and shall be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively, and as nearly as may be shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject. Every affidavit shall be written or printed bookwise. No costs shall be allowed for any affidavit or part of an affidavit substantially departing from this rule.

Order LIV., Rule 12. In the Queen's Bench Division a

Master, and in the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division a Registrar, may transact all such business and exercise all such authority and jurisdiction in respect of the same, as under the Acts or these Rules may be transacted or exercised by a Judge at Chambers, except in respect of the following proceedings and matters; that is to say—

(i.) Awarding of costs, other than the costs of or relating to any proceeding before a Master, or Registrar, and other than any costs which by these Rules, or by the Order of the Court or a Judge, he is authorised to award:

(k.) Reviewing taxation of costs:

Order LV., Rule 2. The business to be disposed of in Chambers by Judges of the Chancery Division, shall consist of the following matters, in addition to the matters which under any other Rule or by statute may be disposed of in Chambers:

(15.) All applications under 6 & 7 Vict. c. 73 (not being applications for orders of course) for the taxation and delivery of bills of costs and for the delivery by any solicitor of deeds, documents, and papers.

Order LV., Rule 40. Where, upon the hearing of the summons to proceed, or at any time during the prosecution of the judgment or order, it appears to the Judge, with respect to the whole or any portion of the proceedings, that the interests of the parties can be classified, he may require the parties constituting each or any class to be represented by the same solicitor, and may direct what parties may attend all or any part of the proceedings, and where the parties constituting any class cannot agree upon the solicitor to represent them, the Judge may nominate such solicitor for the purpose of the proceedings before him, and where any one of the parties constituting such class declines to authorise the solicitor so nominated to act for him, and insists upon being represented by a different solicitor, such party shall personally pay the costs of his own solicitor of and relating to the proceedings before the Judge, with respect to which such nomination shall have been made, and all such further costs as shall be occasioned to any of the parties by his being represented by a different solicitor from the solicitor so to be nominated.

Order LV., Rule 42. Any of the parties other than those who shall have been directed to attend may attend at their own expense, and upon paying the costs, if any, occasioned by such attendance, or, if they think fit, they may apply by summons for liberty to attend at the expense of the estate, or to have the conduct of the action either in addition to or in substitution for any of the parties who shall have been directed to attend.

Order LVI., Rule 7. Counsel may attend the hearing of any reference, but the expenses attending the employment of Counsel shall not be allowed on taxation, unless the Registrar shall be of opinion that the attendance of Counsel was necessary.

Order LVIII., Rule 12. Where evidence has not been printed in the Court below, the Court below or a Judge thereof, or the Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof, may order the whole or any part thereof to be printed for the purpose of the appeal. Any party printing evidence for the purpose of an appeal without such order shall bear the costs thereof, unless the Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof shall otherwise order.

Order LVIII., Rule 19. On an appeal from the High Court, interest for such time as execution has been delayed by the appeal shall be allowed unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders, and the taxing officer may compute such interest without any order for that purpose.

Order LXI., Rule 3. A sufficient number of Masters, not being less than three, shall, except in vacation, attend each day at the Central Office to tax costs. In vacation one Master shall attend daily for that purpose. The taxing Masters shall be selected according to a rota to be fixed by the Masters.

Order LXII., Rule 15. The Registrar shall, at the time of any attendance before him for the purpose of settling the terms of and passing any judgment or order, if requested to do so by any party, on the ground that it is of a special nature or of unusual length or difficulty, certify, for the information of the taxing officer, whether in his opinion any special allowance ought to be made in taxation of costs in respect thereof.

Order LXIII., Rule 1. The sittings of the Court of Appeal and the sittings in London and Middlesex of the High Court of Justice shall be four in every year, viz., the Michaelmas sittings, the Hilary sittings, the Easter sittings, and the Trinity sittings. The Michaelmas sittings shall commence on the 2nd of November*, and terminate on the 21st of December; the Hilary sittings shall commence on the 11th of January and terminate on the Wednesday before Easter; the Easter sittings shall commence on the Tuesday after Easter week and terminate on the Friday before Whit Sunday; and the Trinity sittings shall commence on the Tuesday after Whitsun week and terminate on the 8th of August.†

Order LXIII., Rule 4. The vacations to be observed in the several courts and offices of the Supreme Court shall be four in every year, viz., the Long vacation, the Christmas vacation, the Easter vacation, and the Whitsun vacation. The Long vacation shall commence on the 10th of August and terminate on the 24th of October‡: the Christmas vacation shall commence on the 24th of December and terminate on the 6th of January: the Easter vacation shall commence on Good Friday and terminate on Easter Tuesday: and the Whitsun vacation shall commence on the Saturday before Whit Sunday and shall terminate on the Tuesday after Whit Sunday.

Order LXIII., Rule 5. The days of the commencement and termination of each sitting and vacation shall be included in such sitting and vacation respectively.

* Altered by Order to 24th October.
† Altered by Order to 12th August.
‡ Altered by Order to the 13th August and 23rd October.

Order LXV., Rule 1. Subject to the provisions of the Acts and these Rules, the costs of and incident to all proceedings in the Supreme Court, including the administration of estates and trusts, shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge; Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive an executor, administrator, trustee, or mortgagee who has not unreasonably instituted or carried on or resisted any proceedings, of any right to costs out of a particular estate or fund to which he would be entitled according to the rules hitherto acted upon in the Chancery Division; Provided also that, where any action, cause, matter, or issue is tried with a jury, the costs shall follow the event, unless the Judge by whom such action, cause, matter, or issue is tried, or the Court, shall, for good cause, otherwise order.

Order LXV., Rule 2. When issues in fact and law are raised upon a claim or counter-claim, the costs of the several issues respectively, both in law and fact, shall, unless otherwise ordered, follow the event.

Order LXV., Rule 3. If a cause be removed from an inferior Court, having jurisdiction in the cause, the costs in the Court below shall be costs in the cause.

Order LXV., Rule 4. Where an action is ordered to be tried in a County Court under the provisions of 19 & 20 Vict. c. 108, s. 26, the costs of the action shall, subject to the provisions of the Principal Act and these Rules, follow the event, unless by the Registrar's certificate of the result of the trial it shall appear that the Judge before whom the action was tried was of opinion that the question of costs ought to be referred to a Judge of the High Court, in which case no costs shall be recovered unless ordered by the Court or a Judge.

Order LXV., Rule 5. Where upon the trial of any cause or matter it appears that the same cannot conveniently proceed by reason of the solicitor for any party having neglected to attend personally, or by some proper person on his behalf, or having omitted to deliver any paper necessary for the use of the Court or Judge, and which according to the practice ought to have been delivered, such solicitor shall personally pay to all or any of the parties such costs as the Court or Judge shall see fit to award.

Order LXV., Rule 6. In any cause or matter in which security for costs is required, the security shall be of such amount, and be given at such times, and in such manner and form, as the Court or a Judge shall direct.

Order LXV., Rule 7. Where a bond is to be given as security for costs, it shall, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct, be given to the party or person requiring the security, and not to an officer of the Court.

Order LXV., Rule 8. In causes and matters commenced after these Rules come into operation, solicitors shall be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed "lower scale" in Appendix N. in all causes and matters, and no higher fees shall be allowed in any case, except such as are by this Order otherwise provided for; and in causes and matters pending at the time when these Rules come into operation, to which the higher scale of costs previously in force was applicable, the same scale shall continue to be applied.

Order LXV., Rule 9. The fees set forth in the column headed "higher scale" in Appendix N. may be allowed, either generally in any cause or matter, or as to the costs of any particular application made, or business done, in any cause or matter, if, on special grounds arising out of the nature and importance, or the difficulty or urgency of the case, the Court or a Judge shall, at the trial or hearing, or further consideration of the cause or matter, or at the hearing of any application therein, whether the cause or matter shall or shall not be brought to trial or hearing or to further consideration (as the case may be), so order; or if the taxing officer, under directions given to him for that purpose by the Court or a Judge, shall think that such allowance ought to be so made upon such special grounds as aforesaid.

Order LXV., Rule 10. Upon any reference to a taxing officer to tax a bill of costs of a solicitor for the purpose of ascertaining the amount due to such solicitor in respect thereof from the person to be charged therewith, if such bill shall include charges for business done in any cause or matter, the taxing officer may allow the fees set forth in the column headed "higher scale" in Appendix N. in respect of such cause or matter, or in respect of any particular application made or business done therein, if on such special grounds, as are in the last preceding rule mentioned, he shall think that such allowance ought to be so made.

Order LXV., Rule 11. If in any case it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that costs have been improperly or without any reasonable cause incurred, or that by reason of any undue delay in proceeding under any judgment or order, or of any misconduct or default of the solicitor, any costs properly incurred have nevertheless proved fruitless to the person incurring the same, the Court or Judge may call on the solicitor of the person by whom such costs have been so incurred to show cause why such costs should not be disallowed as between the solicitor and his client, and also (if the circumstances of the case shall require) why the solicitor should not repay to his client any costs which the client may have been ordered to pay to any other person, and thereupon may make such order as the justice of the case may require. The Court or Judge may, if they or he think fit, refer the matter to a taxing officer for inquiry and report; and direct the solicitor in the first place to show cause before such taxing officer, and may also, if they or he think fit, direct or authorise the Official Solicitor of the Supreme Court to attend and take part in such inquiry. Such notice (if any) of the proceedings or order shall be given to the client in such manner as the Court or Judge may direct. Any costs of the Official Solicitor shall be paid by such parties, or out of such funds as the Court or a Judge may direct; or, if not otherwise paid, may be paid out of such moneys (if any) as may be provided by Parliament.

Order LXV., Rule 12. In actions founded on contract, in which the plaintiff recovers, by judgment or otherwise, a sum (exclusive of costs) not exceeding £50, he shall be entitled to no more costs than he would have been entitled to, had he brought his action in a County Court, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders.

Order LXV., Rule 13. Where the Court or a Judge appoints one of the solicitors of the Court to be guardian ad litem of an infant or person of unsound mind, the Court or Judge may direct that the costs to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such office shall be borne and paid either by the parties or some one or more of the parties to the cause or matter in which such appointment is made, or out of any fund in Court in which such infant or person of unsound mind may be interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of such costs as the justice and circumstances of the case may require.

Order LXV., Rule 14. A set-off for damages or costs between parties may be allowed notwithstanding the solicitor's lien for costs in the particular cause or matter in which the set-off is sought.

Order LXV., Rule 15. Costs may be taxed on an award, notwithstanding the time for setting aside the award has not elapsed.

Order LXV., Rule 16. One day's notice of taxing costs, together with a copy of the bill of costs and affidavit of increase (if any), shall be given by the solicitor of the party whose costs are to be taxed to the other party or his solicitor, in all cases where a notice to tax is necessary.

Order LXV., Rule 17. Notice of taxing costs shall not be necessary in any case where the defendant has not appeared in person, or by his solicitor or guardian.

Order LXV., Rule 18. Every reference for the taxation of costs in the Chancery Division shall be made to the Taxing Master in rotation; provided that in any case where there shall have been any former taxation in the same cause or matter, or in any summons under Order LV., Rules 3 or 4, relating to the same estate or trust, the reference shall be to the Taxing Master before whom such former taxation took place.

Order LXV., Rule 19. The Taxing Masters shall be respectively assistant to each other, and in the discharge of their duties; and, for the better despatch of the business of their respective offices, any Taxing Master may tax or assist in the taxation of a bill of costs which has been referred to any other Taxing Master for taxation, and for ascertaining what is due in respect of such costs, and in such case shall certify accordingly.

Order LXV., Rule 20. Where, upon the taxation of any bill of costs in the Chancery Division, it appears to the Taxing Master that for the purpose of duly taxing the same it is necessary to inspect any books, papers, or documents, relating to the cause or matter in the Chambers of any Judge, the Taxing Master shall be at liberty to request the Chief Clerk of such Judge to cause the same to be transmitted to the office of the Taxing Master, and also to request such Chief Clerk to certify any proceedings in the said Chambers which may be comprised in the bill of costs under taxation, and in such cases the Chief Clerk, when and so soon, and at and for such times, as the due transaction of the business at the said Chambers will permit, shall direct such books, papers, and documents, to be transmitted to the office of the Taxing Master for his use during the taxation, and shall certify the proceedings which have taken place in the said Chambers according to the request of the Taxing Master; and after the costs in respect of which such request of the Taxing Master was made shall have been certified, the Taxing Master shall cause the same books, papers, and documents, which have been so transmitted to his office, if then remaining there, to be returned to the Chambers of the Judge.

Order LXV., Rule 21. When any book, paper, or document shall be transmitted from the Chambers of a Judge to the office of a Taxing Master, a memorandum of such transmission shall be made and signed by the Taxing Master or the clerk of the Taxing Master, at whose request such book, paper, or document may be transmitted, and shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk of such Judge; and when any such book, paper, or document shall be returned from the office of the Taxing Master to the Judge's Chambers, a memorandum of such return shall be made and signed by such Chief Clerk, or by one of his clerks, and shall be delivered to the Taxing Master.

Order LXV., Rule 22. Where in pursuance of any direction by the Court or a Judge in Chambers drafts are settled by any of the Conveyancing Counsel of the Court, the expense of procuring such drafts to be previously or subsequently settled by other counsel, on behalf of the same parties on whose behalf such drafts are settled by the Conveyancing Counsel of the Court, shall not be allowed on taxation as between party and party, or as between solicitor and client, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct.

Order LXV., Rule 23. Upon interlocutory applications where the Court or a Judge shall think fit to award costs to any party, the Court or Judge may by the order direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs, and direct by and to whom such sum in gross shall be paid.

Order LXV., Rule 24. The fees payable on proceedings before a Judge in Chambers under the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853, s. 28, shall be the same as the fees payable according to the rules relating to costs in respect of other proceedings commencing by summons, and shall also in all other respects be regulated by these rules.

Order LXV., Rule 25. Where the Judge directs that any matter commenced by summons under the Act in the last preceding rule mentioned shall be heard in open Court, the same fees shall be payable and the same costs shall be allowed as would have been payable in respect of any other matter so heard.

Order LXV., Rule 26. The fees and allowances to solicitors on proceedings under the Act 22 & 23 Vict. c. 35, s. 30 shall be the same as are payable under these rules, and by the practice of the Court for business of a similar nature.

Order LXVII., Rule 4. Where no appearance has been entered for a party, or where a party or his solicitor, as the case may be, has omitted to give an address for service as required by Orders IV. and XII., all writs, notices, pleadings, orders, summonses, warrants, and other documents, proceedings, and written communications in respect of which personal service is not requisite may be served by filing them with the proper officer.

Order LXXI., Rule 4. When a summons is taken out to set aside any process or proceeding for irregularity with costs, and the summons is dismissed generally without any special direction as to costs, it is to be understood as dismissed with costs.

Order LXXII., Rule 2. Where no other provision is made by the Acts or these Rules, the present procedure and practice remain in force.

SPECIAL ALLOWANCES AND GENERAL REGULATIONS.

The following special allowances and general regulations shall apply to all proceedings and all taxations in the Supreme Court of Judicature:—

205 1. As to writs of summons requiring special indorsement, and as to special cases, pleadings, and affidavits in answer to interrogatories and other special affidavits, and admissions under Order XXXII., Rule 4, the taxing officer may, in lieu of the allowances for instructions and preparing or drawing and attendances, make such allowance for work, labour, and expenses in or about the preparation of such documents as in his discretion he may think proper.

206 2. As to drawing any pleading or other document, the fees allowed shall include any copy made for the use of the solicitor, agent, or client, or for counsel to settle.

207 3. As to instructions to sue or defend, or the preparation of briefs, if the taxing officer shall, on special grounds, consider the fee in either scale provided inadequate, he may make such further allowance as he shall in his discretion consider reasonable.

208 4. As to affidavits, when there are several deponents to be sworn, or it is necessary for the purpose of an affidavit being sworn to go to a distance, or to employ an agent, such reasonable allowance may be made as the taxing officer in his discretion may think fit.

209 5. The allowances for instructions and drawing an affidavit in answer to interrogatories and other special affidavits, and attending the deponent to be sworn, include all attendances on the deponent to settle and read over.

210 6. As to delivery of pleadings, services, and notices, the fees are not to be allowed when the same solicitor is for both parties, unless it be necessary for the purpose of making an affidavit of service.

211 7. As to perusals the fees are not to apply where the same solicitor is for both parties.

212 8. Where the same solicitor is employed for two or more defendants and separate pleadings are delivered or other proceedings had by or for two or more such defendants separately, the taxing officer shall consider in the taxation of such solicitor's bill of costs, either between party and party or between solicitor and client, whether such separate pleadings or other proceedings were necessary or proper; and if he is of opinion that any part of the costs occasioned thereby has been unnecessarily or improperly incurred, the same shall be disallowed.

213 9. As to evidence, such just and reasonable charges and expenses as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence, and the attendance of witnesses, are to be allowed.

214 10. As to agency correspondence, in country agency causes and matters, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the taxing officer that such correspondence has been special and extensive, he is to be at liberty to make such special allowance in respect thereof as in his discretion he may think proper.

215 11. As to the attendance of solicitors upon the registrars in the Chancery Division for the purpose of settling the terms of and passing judgments or orders, the taxing officer may, in such cases as are provided for by Order LXII., Rule 15, make such special allowances in respect thereof as he shall consider reasonable.

216 12. As to attendances at the Judge's Chambers, where, from the length of the attendance, or from the difficulty of the case, the Judge or Master shall think the highest of the fees an insufficient remuneration for the services performed, or where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before the Judge or Master in Chambers, or on a summons, shall have required skill and labour for which no fee has been allowed, the judge or master may allow such fee in lieu of the fee of £1 1s. provided, not exceeding £2 2s., or where the higher scale is applicable, £3 3s., or in proceedings to wind up a company, £5 5s., as in his discretion he may think fit; and where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before a Judge at Chambers on a summons shall have required and received from the solicitor such extraordinary skill and labour as materially to conduce to the satisfactory and speedy disposal of the business, and therefore shall appear to the Judge to deserve higher remuneration than the ordinary fees, the Judge may allow to the solicitor, by a memorandum in writing expressly made for that purpose and signed by the Judge, specifying distinctly the grounds of such allowance, such fee, not exceeding 10 guineas, as in his discretion he may think fit, instead of the fees of £2 2s., £3 3s., and £5 5s.

217 13. As to attendances at the Judges' Chambers, where by reason of the non-attendance of any party (unless it be considered expedient to proceed ex parte), or where by reason of the neglect of any party in not being prepared with any proper evidence, account, or other proceeding, the attendance is adjourned without any useful progress being made, the Judge may order such an amount of costs (if any) as he shall think reasonable to be paid to the party attending by the party so absent or neglectful, or by his solicitor personally; and the party so absent or neglectful is not to be allowed any fee as against any other party, or any estate or fund in which any other party is interested.

218 14. A folio is to comprise 72 words, every figure comprised in a column or authorised to be used being counted as one word.

219 15. Such costs of procuring the advice of counsel on the pleadings, evidence, and proceedings in any cause or matter as the taxing officer shall in his discretion think just and reasonable, and of procuring counsel to settle such pleadings and special affidavits as the taxing officer shall in his discretion think proper to be settled by counsel, are to be allowed; but as to affidavits a separate fee is not to be allowed for each affidavit, but one fee for all the affidavits proper to be so settled which are or ought to be filed at the same time.

220 16. As to counsel attending at Judges' Chambers, no costs thereof shall in any case be allowed, unless the Judge certifies it to be a proper case for counsel to attend.

221 17. As to inspection of documents under Order XXXI., Rule 15, no allowance is to be made for any notice or inspection, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the taxing officer that there were good and sufficient reasons for giving such notice and making such inspection.

222 18. As to taking copies of documents in possession of another party, or extracts therefrom, under Rules of Court or any special order, the party entitled to take the copy or extract is to pay the solicitor of the party producing the document for such copy or extract as he may, by writing, require, at the rate of 4d. per folio; and if the solicitor of the party producing the document refuses or neglects to supply the same, the solicitor requiring the copy or extract is to be at liberty to make it, and the solicitor for the party producing is not to be entitled to any fee in respect thereof.

223 19. Where any petition in a cause or matter assigned to the Chancery Division is served, and notice is given to the party served that in case of his appearance in court his costs will be objected to, and accompanied by a tender of costs for perusing the same, the amount to be tendered shall be £1 10s. The party making such payment shall be allowed the same in his costs, provided such service was proper, but not otherwise; but this order is without prejudice to the rights of either party to costs, or to object to costs where no such tender is made, or where the Court or Judge shall consider the party entitled, notwithstanding such notice or tender, to appear in court. In any other case in which a solicitor of a party served necessarily or properly peruses any such petition without appearing thereon, he is to be allowed a fee not exceeding the amount aforesaid.

224 20. The Court or judge may, at the hearing of any cause or matter, or upon any application or proceeding in any cause or matter in court or at chambers, and whether the same is objected to or not, direct the costs of any indorsement on a writ of summons, pleading, summons, affidavit, evidence, notice requiring a statement of claim, notice to produce, admit, or cross-examine witnesses, account, statement, procuring discovery by interrogatories or order, applications for time, bills of costs, service of notice of motion or summons, or other proceeding, or any part thereof, which is improper, vexatious, unnecessary, or contains vexatious or unnecessary matter, or is of unnecessary length, or caused by misconduct or negligence, to be disallowed, or may direct the taxing officer to look into the same and to disallow the costs thereof, or of such part thereof as he shall find to be improper, unnecessary, vexatious, or to contain unnecessary matter, or to be of unnecessary length, or caused by misconduct or negligence; and in such case the party whose costs are so disallowed shall pay the costs occasioned thereby to the other parties, and in any case where such question shall not have been raised before and dealt with by the Court or Judge, it shall be the duty of the taxing officer to look into the same (and, as to evidence, although the same may be entered as read in any decree or order) for the purpose aforesaid, and thereupon the same consequences shall ensue as if he had been specially directed to do so, and in the Queen's Bench Division the Master shall make such order as may be required to effect the object of this regulation.

225 21. In any case in which, under the last preceding regulation, or any other rule of Court, or by the order or direction of a Court or Judge, or otherwise, a party entitled to receive costs is liable to pay costs to any other party, the taxing officer may tax the costs such party is so liable to pay, and may adjust the same by way of deduction or set-off, or may, if he shall think fit, delay the allowance of the costs such party is entitled to receive until he has paid or tendered the costs he is liable to pay; or such officer may allow or certify the costs to be paid, and direct payment thereof, and the same may be recovered by the party entitled thereto in the same manner as costs ordered to be paid may be recovered.

226 22. Where in the Chancery Division any question as to any costs is under Regulation 20 dealt with at Chambers, the Chief Clerk is to make a note thereof, and state the same on his allowance of the fees for attendances at Chambers, or otherwise as may be convenient for the information of the taxing officer.

227 23. Where any party appears upon any application or proceeding in Court or at Chambers in which he is not interested, or upon which, according to the practice of the Court, he ought not to attend, he is not to be allowed any costs of such appearance unless the Court or Judge shall expressly direct such costs to be allowed.

228 24. The costs of applications to extend the time for taking any proceedings shall be in the discretion of the taxing officer, unless the Court or Judge shall have specially directed how the costs are to be paid or borne. The taxing officer shall not allow the costs of more than one extension of time, unless he is satisfied that such extension was necessary, and could not, with due diligence, have been avoided. The costs of a summons to extend time shall not be allowed in cases to which Rule 8 of Order LXIV. applies, unless the party taking out such summons has previously applied to the opposite party to consent, and he has not given a consent to a sufficient extension of time, or the taxing officer shall consider there was a good reason for not making such application; and in case the taxing officer shall not allow the costs of such summons, and shall consider that the party applying ought to pay the costs of any other party occasioned thereby, he may direct such payment, or deal with such costs, in the manner provided by Regulation 21.

229 25. The taxing officers of the Supreme Court, or of any Division thereof, shall, for the purpose of any proceeding before them, have power and authority to administer oaths, and shall, in relation to the taxation of costs, perform all such duties as have heretofore been or are by general orders directed to be performed by any of the Masters, Taxing Masters, Registrars, or other officers of any of the Courts whose jurisdiction is by the Principal Act transferred to the High Court of Justice or Court of Appeal, and shall, in respect thereof, have such powers and authorities as previous to the commencement of the Principal Act were, or by general orders are, vested in any of such officers, including examining witnesses, directing production of books, papers and documents, making separate certificates or allocaturs, requiring any party to be represented by a separate solicitor, and to direct and adopt all such other proceedings as could be directed and adopted by any such officer on references for the taxation of costs, and taking accounts of what is due in respect of such costs, and such other accounts connected therewith as may be directed by the Court or a Judge.

230 26. Where an account consists in part of any bill of costs the Court or Judge may direct the taxing officer to assist in settling such costs, not being the ordinary costs of passing the account of a receiver, and the taxing officer, on receiving such direction, shall proceed to tax such costs, and shall have the same powers and the same fees shall be payable in respect thereof, as if the same had been referred to the taxing officer by an order; and he shall return the same, with his opinion thereon, to the Court or Judge by whose direction the same were taxed.

231 27. The taxing officer shall have authority to arrange and direct what parties are to attend before him on the taxation of costs to be borne by a fund or estate, and to disallow the costs of any party whose attendance such officer shall in his discretion consider unnecessary in consequence of the interest of such party in such fund or estate being small or remote, or sufficiently protected by other parties interested.

232 28. When any party entitled to costs refuses or neglects to bring in his costs for taxation, or to procure the same to be taxed, and thereby prejudices any other party, the taxing officer shall be at liberty to certify the costs of the other parties, and certify such refusal or neglect, or may allow such party refusing or neglecting a nominal or other sum for such costs, so as to prevent any other party being prejudiced by such refusal or neglect.

233 29. As to costs to be paid or borne by another party, no costs are to be allowed which do not appear to the taxing officer to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or defending the rights of the party, or which appear to the taxing officer to have been incurred through over-caution, negligence, or mistake, or merely at the desire of the party.

234 30. As to any work and labour properly performed and not herein provided for, and in respect of which fees have heretofore been allowed, the same or similar fees are to be allowed for such work and labour as have heretofore been allowed.

235 31. Where the plaintiff is directed to pay to the defendant the costs of the cause, the costs occasioned to a defendant by any amendment of the plaintiff's pleadings, shall be deemed to be part of such defendant's costs in the cause (except as to any amendment which shall appear to have been rendered necessary by the default of such defendant); but there shall be deducted from such costs any sum which may have been paid by the plaintiff according to the course of the Court at the time of any amendment.

236 32. Where upon taxation a plaintiff who has obtained a judgment with costs is not allowed the costs of any amendment of his pleadings on the ground of the same having been unnecessary, the defendant's costs occasioned by such amendment shall be taxed, and the amount thereof deducted from the costs to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff.

237 33. Where an action or petition is dismissed with costs, or a motion is refused with costs, or any costs are by any general or special order directed to be paid, the taxing officer may tax such costs without any order referring the same for taxation, unless the Court or a Judge, upon the application of the party alleging himself to be aggrieved, prohibits the taxation of such costs.

238 34. Where it is directed that costs shall be taxed in case the parties differ about the same, the party claiming the costs shall bring the bill of costs into the office of the proper taxing officer, and give notice of his having so done to the other party, and at any time within eight days after such notice such other party shall have liberty to inspect the same without fee, if he thinks fit, and at or before the expiration of the eight days or such further time as the taxing officer shall in his discretion allow such other party shall either agree to pay the costs or signify his dissent therefrom, and shall thereupon be at liberty to tender a sum of money for the costs; but where he makes no such tender, or where the party claiming the costs refuses to accept the sum so tendered, the taxing officer shall proceed to tax the costs, and where the taxed costs shall not exceed the sum tendered, the costs of the taxation shall be borne by the party claiming the costs.

239 35. Where any costs are by any judgment or order directed to be taxed and to be paid out of any money or fund in Court, the taxing officer in his certificate of taxation shall state the total amount of all such costs as taxed without any direction for that purpose in such judgment or order.

240 36. The allowances in respect of fees to the Conveyancing Counsel of the Court, and to any accountants, merchants, engineers, actuaries, and other scientific persons to whom any question is referred shall be regulated by the taxing officers subject to appeal to the Court or Judge, whose decision shall be final.

241 37. The rules, orders, and practice of any Court whose jurisdiction is transferred to the High Court of Justice or Court of Appeal, relating to costs, and the allowance of the fees of solicitors and attorneys, and the taxation of costs, existing prior to the commencement of the Principal Act, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the Principal Act, and these rules remain in force and be applicable to costs of the same or analogous proceedings, and to the allowance of the fees of solicitors of the Supreme Court and the taxation of costs in the High Court of Justice and Court of Appeal.

242 38. As to all fees or allowances which are discretionary, the same are, unless otherwise provided, to be allowed at the discretion of the taxing officer, who, in the exercise of such discretion, is to take into consideration the other fees and allowances to the solicitor and counsel, if any, in respect of the work to which any such allowance applies, the nature and importance of the cause or matter, the amount involved, the interest of the parties, the fund or persons to bear the costs, the general conduct and costs of the proceedings, and all other circumstances, and where a party is entitled to sign judgment for his costs, the taxing officer, in taxing the costs, may allow a fixed sum for the costs of the judgment.

243 39. Any party who may be dissatisfied with the allowance or disallowance by the taxing officer, in any bill of costs taxed by him, of the whole or any part of any items, may, at any time before the certificate or allocatur is signed, deliver to the other party interested therein, and carry in before the taxing officer, an objection in writing to such allowance or disallowance, specifying therein by a list, in a short and concise form, the items, or parts thereof, objected to and the grounds and reasons for such objections, and may thereupon apply to the taxing officer to review the taxation in respect of the same.

244 40. Upon such application the taxing officer shall reconsider and review his taxation upon such objections, and he may, if he shall think fit, receive further evidence in respect thereof, and, if so required by either party, he shall state either in his certificate of taxation or allocatur, or by reference to such objection, the grounds and reasons of his decision thereon, and any special facts or circumstances relating thereto.

245 41. Any party who may be dissatisfied with the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer, as to any item or part of an item which may have been objected to as aforesaid, may within 14 days from the date of the certificate or allocatur, or such other time as the Court or Judge, or taxing officer, at the time he signs his certificate or allocatur may allow, apply to a Judge at chambers for an order to review the taxation as to the same item or part of an item, and the Judge may thereupon make such order as the Judge may think just; but the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which shall not have been objected to in manner aforesaid.

246 42. Such application shall be heard and determined by the Judge upon the evidence which shall have been brought in before the taxing officer, and no further evidence shall be received upon the hearing thereof, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

247 43. When a writ of summons for the commencement of an action shall be issued from a District Registry, and when an action proceeds in a District Registry, all fees and allowances, and rules and directions relating to costs, which would be applicable to such proceeding if the writ of summons were issued at the Central Office, and if the action proceeded in London, shall apply to such writ of summons issued from and other proceedings in the District Registry.

248 44. No retaining fee to counsel shall be allowed on taxation as between party and party.

249 45. Fees for conferences are not to be allowed in any cause or matter in addition to the solicitor's and counsel's fees for drawing and settling, or perusing any pleadings, affidavits, deeds, or other proceedings or abstracts of title, or for advising thereon, unless it shall appear to the taxing officer for some special reason that a conference was necessary or proper.

250 46. In any case in which under Rule 12 of this Order the scale of costs in County Courts is applicable, the costs of briefing more than one counsel shall not be allowed, unless the taxing officer shall, for special reasons, be of opinion that briefing more than one counsel was proper.

251 47. Where the costs of retaining two counsel may properly be allowed, such allowance may be made although both such counsel may have been selected from the outer bar.

252 48. As to refresher fees, when any cause or matter is to be tried or heard upon viva voce evidence in open Court, if the trial shall extend over more than one day, and shall occupy either on the first day only, or partly on the first and partly on a subsequent day or days, more than five hours, without being concluded, the taxing officer may allow, for every clear day subsequent to that on which the five hours shall have expired, the following fees :—

	Guineas.
To the leading counsel - - -	from 5 to 10
To the second, if three counsel - -	„ 3 to 7
To the third, if three counsel, or the second, if only two - - -	„ 3 to 5

The like allowances may be made where the evidence in chief is not taken viva voce, if the trial on hearing shall be substantially prolonged beyond such period of five hours, to be so computed as aforesaid, by the cross-examination of witnesses whose affidavits or depositions have been used.

253 49. Where a cause or matter shall not be brought on for trial or hearing, the costs of and consequent on the preparation and delivery of briefs shall not be allowed if the taxing officer shall be of opinion that such costs were prematurely incurred.

254 50. Where a cause or matter which stands for trial is called on to be tried, but cannot be decided by reason of a want of parties or other defect on part of the plaintiff, and is therefore struck out of the paper, and the same cause is again set down, the defendant shall be allowed the taxed costs occasioned by the first setting down, although he does not obtain the costs of the cause or matter.

255 51. The following fees are to be allowed to counsel's clerks :—

Upon a fee under 5 guineas - -	£0	2	6
5 guineas and under 10 guineas -	0	5	0

10 guineas and under 20 guineas	£0	10	0
20 guineas and under 30 guineas	0	15	0
30 guineas and under 50 guineas	1	0	0
50 guineas and upwards per cent.	2	10	0
On consultations, senior's clerk	0	5	0
On consultations, junior's clerk	0	2	6
On conferences-	0	5	0

On retainers (where allowed):

General retainer	0	10	6
Common retainer	0	2	6

256 52. No fee to counsel shall be allowed on taxation unless vouched by his signature.

257 53. In cases in which an original affidavit can be used, and to which Order XXXVIII., Rule 15, applies, it shall not be necessary to take an office copy.

258 54. It shall not be necessary to take an office copy of an affidavit of discovery of documents, and the copy delivered by the party filing it may be used as against such party.

259 55. Where, in proceedings before the taxing officer, any party is guilty of neglect or delay, or puts any other party to any unnecessary or improper expense relative to such proceedings, the taxing officer may direct such party or his solicitor to pay such costs as he may think proper, or deal with them under Regulation 21.

260 56. Where in any cause or matter any bill of costs is directed to be taxed for the purpose of being paid or raised out of any fund or property, the taxing officer may, if he shall consider there is a reasonable ground for so doing, require the solicitor to deliver or send to his clients, or any of them, free of charge, a copy of such bill, or any part thereof, previously to such officer completing the taxation thereof, accompanied by any statement such officer may direct, and by a letter informing such client that the bill of costs has been referred to the taxing officer, giving his name and address for taxation, and will be proceeded with at the time the officer shall have appointed for this purpose, and such officer may suspend the taxation for such time as he may consider reasonable.

261 57. The taxing officer shall have power to limit or extend the time for any proceeding before him, and where, by any general order, or any order of the Court or a Judge, a time is appointed for any proceeding before or by a taxing officer, unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise direct, such officer shall have power from time to time to extend the time appointed upon such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require, and although the application for the same is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed, it shall not be necessary to make a certificate or order for this purpose, unless required for any special purpose.

262 58. Every bill of costs which shall be left for taxation shall be endorsed with the name and address of the solicitor by whom it is so left, and also the name and address of the solicitor, if any, for whom he is agent, including any solicitor who is entitled or intended to participate in the costs to be so taxed.

ORDER AS TO SUPREME COURT FEES, 1884.

The Right Honourable Roundell, Earl of Selborne, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by and with the advice and consent of the undersigned Judges of the Supreme Court, and with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, doth hereby in pursuance and execution of the powers given by the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, and all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, order and direct in manner following :—

263 I. The fees and percentages contained in the schedule hereto are fixed and appointed to be and shall be taken in the High Court of Justice, and in the Court of Appeal, and in any Court to be created by any commission, and in any office which is connected with any of those Courts or in which any business connected with any of those Courts is conducted, and by any officer paid wholly or partly out of public moneys who is attached to any of those Courts, or the Supreme Court, or any Judge of those Courts, or any of them. And the said fees and percentages shall, until otherwise determined by the Treasury, be taken by stamps in the same manner as heretofore, except those taken in the district registries, which shall, until otherwise determined by the Treasury, be taken as the fees and percentages are now taken.

264 II. The provisions in this Order shall not apply to or affect any of the matters following (that is to say) :—

The existing fees and percentages in respect of any of the jurisdictions which are not, by the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts, 1873 and 1875, transferred to the High Court of Justice or the Court of Appeal;

The existing fees and percentages in respect of any matters within the jurisdiction of the Court of Probate at the time of the passing of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, other than probate actions, or in respect of any appeal in bankruptcy;

The existing fees and percentages in respect of any criminal proceedings, other than such proceedings on the Crown side of the Queen's Bench Division as the scale contained in the schedule hereto may be applicable to;

351 The amount on which the fee No. 71 is payable shall not include any outstanding debts believed to be bad or irrecoverable, nor any property the value of which is undefined or uncertain, nor any property to which the fee No. 69 is applicable, nor any money on which the fee No. 72 shall be payable in the same cause or matter.

352 The amount on which either of the fees No. 70 and 72 is payable shall not include any sum of money or any money arising from the sale of any property upon which either of the fees No. 69 and 71 shall have been previously paid.

353 The value of any stocks, funds, debentures, securities, shares or other property, the price of which is quoted in the London Daily Stock and Share List, published by the authority of the Committee of the Stock Exchange, to which the fee No. 71 is applicable, shall be the closing price quoted in such published list on the day previous to the fixing the amount of such fee.

354 When the fee No. 72 shall be applicable to any money received which shall be invested or deposited in a bank, and again be received from such investment or deposit, or shall be paid by one person accounting to any other person accounting in the same cause or matter, or in any other similar case, the fee shall not be payable twice on the same money in the same cause or matter.

355 When a fee shall be payable on the money raised by the sale of property, and the same property shall be resold, in the same cause or matter, the fee payable on the first sale shall be deducted from the fee payable on the second sale.

356 The amounts for or in respect of which the following fees are payable shall be limited to £200,000 in the following cases—(a) the amount raised at any time or times in the same cause or matter in the cases to which the fee No. 69 is applicable ; (b) the amount of purchase money to be invested pursuant to any one order in the cases to which the fee No. 70 is applicable ; (c) the amount in the same cause or matter of the value of the outstanding or undisposed of estate whenever ascertained in the cases to which the fee No. 71 is applicable ; (d) the amount at any time or times in the same cause or matter found to have been received by any executor, administrator, or trustee in the cases to which the fee No. 72 is applicable, except in the case of a trustee directed to account periodically, and in that case, and in all other cases to which the fee

No. 72 is applicable, the amount found to be due by any one certificate or on any one account; (e) the amount at any time or times in the same cause or matter found to be due to a creditor or creditors in the cases to which the fee No. 73 is applicable: (f) the amount found to be due in respect of debentures or bonds in the cases to which the fee No. 75 is applicable.

357 The fees Nos. 69 to 80 inclusive shall become due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings to which they apply as part of his costs of such proceedings, and be allowed as follows or otherwise as the Court or a Judge shall direct: that is to say, the fee No. 71 shall become due and payable upon making the certificate or order by which the outstanding or undisposed of estate is ascertained, or as to any part thereof the value of which is at that time undefined or uncertain, and which, during the further proceedings in the cause or matter shall be realised or the value of which shall be ascertained upon any order or certificate made, when, or after the same shall be so realised or the value thereof ascertained. The fee No. 72 on taking the account of a receiver, guardian, consignee, bailee, manager, liquidator, sequestrator, or execution creditor, or a trustee directed to pass his accounts periodically shall, upon payment, be allowed in the account, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge. The fee No. 72 in the other cases to which it applies, and the fees Nos. 69, 70, and 73 to 80 inclusive, shall become due and payable by the party conducting the proceeding, on making the certificate or order on the result of the sale, purchase, account, inquiry, or other proceeding to which the fee is applicable; but if the Court or a Judge shall be of opinion that the costs of the party liable to the payment of any such fees will become payable out of any funds or moneys in Court or to be brought into Court, the Court or Judge may suspend the payment of any such fees until such funds or moneys are dealt with, or for such other time as may be thought fit, in which case the amount payable shall be stated in the certificate or order upon which the same are payable, or in some subsequent certificate or order, and where such fees have not been paid, and the costs are directed to be paid out of money in Court or out of the proceeds of securities in Court, the Taxing Master shall certify the amount of fees payable in respect of such proceedings, and the Paymaster shall, if so provided by the Rules under the Supreme Court of Judicature (Funds, &c.) Act, 1883, carry over the amount so certified to be payable from the account to which such moneys or proceeds are placed to a separate account in the books of the Pay Office for fees on proceedings or otherwise as shall be provided by such Rules, and the amount shall from time to time, as the Treasury may direct, be paid to the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer.

337	69	Judge's Chambers, Chancery Division—	On proceedings in the, on the sale or mortgage of any land or hereditaments, pursuant to any order directing a sale or mortgage with the approbation of the Judge, made in any cause or matter, for the purpose of raising money to be dealt with by the Court, in such cause or matter, for every £100 or fraction of £100 of the amount raised . . .	0	2	0

350		Judge's Chambers.—The amount on which this fee is payable shall not include the amount payable to any mortgagee or other party unless they are parties to the cause or matter.
355		,,	When a fee shall be payable on the money raised by the sale of property, and the same property shall be re-sold, in the same cause or matter, the fee payable on the first sale shall be deducted from the fee payable on the second sale.
356		,,	The amount for or in respect of which the above fee is applicable shall be limited to £200,000.
357		,,	The fee shall be due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings as part of the costs of conducting such proceedings, and shall be payable on the certificate or order being made, unless the Court or Judge directs it to be paid out of any fund in Court, when the Taxing Master will certify the amount of fees payable to be carried over.
338	70	,,	On the approval of the purchase of any land or hereditaments, or of the title to any land or hereditaments to be purchased, pursuant to any Order, in any cause or matter, with money under the control of the Court in such cause or matter, for every £100 or fraction of £100 of the amount of the purchase money	£0	2	0
352		,,	The amount on which this fee is payable shall not include any sum of money arising from the sale of any property upon which either of the fees No. 69 or No. 71 shall have been previously paid.
356		,,	The amount for or in respect of which the above fee is applicable shall be limited to £200,000.
357		,,	The fee shall be due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings as part of the costs of conducting such proceedings, and shall be payable on the certificate or order being made unless the Court or Judge directs it to be paid out of any fund in court, when the Taxing Master will certify the amount of fees payable to be carried over.
339	71	,,	On proceedings, pursuant to an Order in any cause or matter, where the amount of the outstanding or undisposed of estate of a deceased person, or of the estate, subject to any trust or partnership shall be ascertained, for the purpose of being dealt with in such cause or measure, without deducting any payment to creditors or parties interested after the commencement of the cause or matter, for every £100 or portion of £100, of the amount or value thereof £0 1 0

351 Judge's Chambers.—The amount on which this fee is payable shall not include any outstanding debts believed to be bad or irrecoverable, nor any property the value of which is undefined or uncertain, nor any property to which the fee No. 69 is applicable, nor any money on which the fee No. 72 shall be payable in the same cause or matter.

353 ,, The value of any stocks, funds, debentures, securities, shares or other property, the price of which is quoted in the London Daily Stock and Share List, published by the authority of the Committee of the Stock Exchange, shall be the closing price quoted in such published list on the day previous to the fixing the amount of such fee.

356 ,, The amount in respect of which the above fee shall be taken on the value of the outstanding or undisposed of estate, whenever ascertained, shall be limited to £200,000.

357 ,, This fee shall become due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings as part of his costs of such proceedings, and be allowed as follows or otherwise as the Court or Judge shall direct; that is to say, it shall become due and payable upon making the certificate or order, by which the outstanding or undisposed of estate is ascertained, or as to any part thereof, the value of which is at that time undefined or uncertain, and which during the further proceedings in the cause or matter shall be realised, or the value of which shall be ascertained upon any order or certificate made when or after the same shall be so realised, or the value thereof ascertained.

340 72 ,, On taking an account of moneys received by an executor, administrator, trustee, agent, solicitor, mortgagee, co-tenant, partner, receiver, guardian, consignee, bailee, manager, provisional, official, or other liquidator, sequestrator or execution creditor, or other person liable to account for every £100 or fraction of £100 of the amount found to have been received without deducting any payment £0 1 0

352 Judge's Chambers.—The amount on which this fee is payable shall not include any sum of money arising from the sale of any property upon which either of the fees No. 69 and 71 shall have been previously paid.

354 „ When this fee shall be applicable to any money received, which shall be invested or deposited in a bank, and again be received from such investment or deposit, or shall be paid by one person accounting to any other person accounting in the same cause or matter, or in any other similar case, the fee shall not be payable twice on the same money in the same cause or matter.

356 „ The amount at any time or times in the same cause or matter found to have been received by any executor, administrator or trustee in the cases to which this fee is applicable, except in the case of a trustee directed to account periodically, and in that case, and in all other cases to which this fee is applicable, the amount found to be due by any one certificate or on any one account, shall be limited to £200,000.

357 „ The fees shall become due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings to which they apply, as part of his costs of such proceedings, and be allowed as follows or otherwise as the Court or Judge shall direct; that is, on taking the account of a receiver, guardian, consignee, bailee, manager, liquidator or execution creditor, or a trustee directed to pass his accounts periodically, shall, upon payment, be allowed in the account. In other cases to which it applies it shall become due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings, on making the certificate or order on the account; but if the Court or Judge shall be of opinion that the costs of the party liable to the payment of any such fees will become payable out of any funds or moneys in Court, the Court or Judge may suspend the payment of any such fees, until such funds or moneys are dealt with, or for such other time as may be thought fit, in which case the amount payable shall be stated in the certificate or order upon which the same are payable, or in some subsequent certificate or order, and where such fees have not been paid, and the costs are directed to be paid out of money in Court, or out of the proceeds of securities in Court, the Taxing Master shall certify the amount of fees payable in respect of such proceedings, and the Chancery Paymaster shall, if so provided by the Rules under the Chancery Funds Act, carry over the amount so certified.

341	73	Judge's Chambers.—On taking an account of the debts or ascertaining the amount of any debt due from a deceased person, or from any company in any cause or matter, when any creditor shall be required to prove his debt otherwise than by production of his security, for every £100 or fraction of £100 of the amount found to be due to such creditor, or (if more than one) of the aggregate amount found to be due to all such creditors .	£0	1	0
356		,,	The amount for or in respect of which the above fee is applicable, shall be limited to £200,000.
357		,,	The fee shall be due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings as part of the costs of conducting such proceedings, and shall be payable on the certificate or order being made, unless the Court or Judge directs it to be paid out of any fund in Court ; when the Taxing Master will certify the amount of fees payable to be carried over.
342	74	,,	And in any such case, if after evidence adduced by the creditor his claim shall be disallowed, on each such claim	0	10	0
343	75	,,	On taking an account of or ascertaining the amount due in respect of the debentures or bonds of a joint stock or other company, for every £100 or fraction of £100 of the aggregate amount found to be due . . .	0	2	0
356		,,	The amount for or in respect of which the above fee is applicable shall be limited to £200,000.

357		Judge's Chambers—The fee shall be due and payable by the party conducting the proceedings as part of the costs of conducting such proceedings, and shall be payable on the certificate or order being made, unless the Court or Judge directs it to be paid out of any fund in Court, when the Taxing Master will certify the amount of fees payable to be carried over.

(2.) This Act does not extend to Scotland.

(3.) In this Act—

"Solicitor" means a solicitor or proctor qualified according to the statutes in that behalf;

"Client" includes any person who, as a principal, or on behalf of another, or as trustee or executor, or in any other capacity, has power, express or implied, to retain or employ, and retains or employs, or is about to retain or employ, a solicitor, and any person for the time being liable to pay to a solicitor, for his services, any costs, remuneration, charges, expenses or disbursements;

"Person" includes a body of persons corporate or unincorporate;

"Incorporated Law Society" means, in England, the Society referred to under that title in the Act passed in the session of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors and Certificated Conveyancers"; and, in Ireland, the Society referred to under that title in the Attorneys and Solicitors Act, Ireland, 1866;

"Provincial law societies or associations" means all bodies of solicitors in England incorporated by Royal Charter, or under the Joint Stock Companies Act, other than the Incorporated Law Society above mentioned.

General Orders.

2. In England, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of England, the Master of the Rolls, and the president for the time being of the Incorporated Law Society, and the president of one of the provincial law societies or associations, to be selected and nominated from time to time by the Lord Chancellor to serve during the tenure of office of such president, or any three of them, the Lord Chancellor being one, and, in Ireland, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland, the Master of the Rolls, and the president for the time being of the Incorporated Law Society, or any three of them, the Lord Chancellor being one, may from time to time make any such General Order as to them seems fit for prescribing and regulating the remuneration of solicitors in respect of business connected with sales, purchases, leases, mortgages, settlements, and other matters of conveyancing, and in respect of other business not being business in any action, or transacted in any Court, or in the Chambers of any Judge or Master, and not being otherwise contentious business, and may revoke or alter any such order.

3. One month at least before any such General Order shall be made, the Lord Chancellor shall cause a copy of the regulations and provisions proposed to be embodied therein to be communicated in writing to the Council of the Incorporated Law Society, who shall be at liberty to submit such observations and suggestions in writing as they may think fit to offer thereon; and the Lord Chancellor, and the other persons hereby authorised to make such Order, shall take into consideration any such observations or suggestions which may be submitted to them by the said Council within one month from the day on which such communication to the said Council shall have been made as aforesaid, and, after duly considering the same, may make such Order, either in the form or to the effect originally communicated to the said Council, or with such alterations, additions, or amendments, as to them may seem fit.

4. Any General Order under this Act may, as regards the mode of remuneration, prescribe that it shall be according to a scale of rates of commission or per-centage, varying or not in different classes of business, or by a gross sum, or by a fixed sum for each document prepared or perused, without regard to length, or in any other mode, or partly in one mode and partly in another, or others, and may, as regards the amount of the remuneration, regulate the same with reference to all or any of the following, among other, considerations; (namely,)

The position of the party for whom the solicitor is concerned in any business, that is, whether as vendor or as purchaser, lessor or lessee, mortgagor or mortgagee, and the like;

The place, district, and circumstances at or in which the business or part thereof is transacted;

The amount of the capital money or of the rent to which the business relates;

The skill, labour, and responsibility involved therein on the part of the solicitor;

The number and importance of the documents prepared or perused, without regard to length;

The average or ordinary remuneration obtained by solicitors in like business at the passing of this Act.

5. Any General Order under this Act may authorise and regulate the taking by a solicitor from his client of security for future remuneration in accordance with any such Order, to be ascertained by taxation or otherwise, and the allowance of interest.

6.—(1.) Any General Order under this Act shall not take effect unless and until it has been laid before each House of Parliament, and one month thereafter has elapsed.

(2.) If within that month an address is presented to the Queen by either House, seeking the disallowance of the Order, or part thereof, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in council, to disallow the Order or that part, and the Order or part disallowed shall not take effect.

7. As long as any General Order under this Act is in operation, the taxation of bills of costs of solicitors shall be regulated thereby.

Agreements.

8.—(1.) With respect to any business to which the foregoing provisions of this Act relate, whether any General Order under this Act is in operation or not, it shall be competent for a solicitor to make an agreement with his client, and for a client to make an agreement with his solicitor, before or after or in the course of the transaction of any such business, for the remuneration of the solicitor, to such amount and in such manner as the solicitor and the client think fit, either by a gross sum, or by commission or percentage, or by salary, or otherwise; and it shall be competent for the solicitor to accept from the client, and for the client to give to the solicitor, remuneration accordingly.

(2.) The agreement shall be in writing, signed by the person to be bound thereby or by his agent in that behalf.

(3.) The agreement may, if the solicitor and the client think fit, be made on the terms that the amount of the remuneration therein stipulated for either shall include or shall not include all or any disbursements made by the solicitor in respect of searches, plans, travelling, stamps, fees, or other matters.

(4.) The agreement may be sued and recovered on or impeached and set aside in the like manner and on the like grounds as an agreement not relating to the remuneration of a solicitor ; and if, under any order for taxation of costs, such agreement being relied upon by the solicitor shall be objected to by the client as unfair or unreasonable, the taxing master or officer of the Court may inquire into the facts, and certify the same to the Court ; and if, upon such certificate, it shall appear to the Court or Judge that just cause has been shown either for cancelling the agreement, or for reducing the amount payable under the same, the Court or Judge shall have power to order such cancellation or reduction, and to give all such directions necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying such order into effect, or otherwise consequential thereon, as to the Court or Judge may seem fit.

9. The Attorneys and Solicitors Act, 1870, shall not apply to any business to which this Act relates.

GENERAL ORDER MADE IN PURSUANCE OF THE SOLICITORS' REMUNERATION ACT, 1881.

44 & 45 Vict., cap. 44.

We, The Right Honourable Roundell Baron Selborne, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, The Right Honourable John Duke Lord Coleridge, Lord Chief Justice of England, The Right Honourable Sir George Jessel, Master of the Rolls, and Enoch Harvey, Esquire, President of the Incorporated Law Society of Liverpool (being four of the persons in that behalf authorised by the Statute 44th and 45th Victoria, chapter 44), do hereby, in pursuance and execution of the powers given to us by the said Statute, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in that behalf, order and direct in manner following :—

1. This order is to take effect from and after the 31st day of December, 1882, except that Schedule I. hereto shall not apply to transactions respecting real property, the title to which has been registered under the Acts of 25 & 26 Vict., cap. 53, 25 & 26 Vict., cap. 67, and 38 & 39 Vict., cap. 87.

2. Subject to the exception aforesaid, the remuneration of a solicitor in respect of business connected with sales, purchases, leases, mortgages, settlements and other matters of conveyancing, and in respect of other business, not being business in any action, or transacted in any court, or in the chambers of any judge or master, is to be regulated as follows, namely :—

(a.) In respect of sales, purchases, and mortgages completed, the remuneration of the solicitor having the conduct of the business, whether for the vendor, purchaser, mortgagor, or mortgagee, is to be that prescribed in Part I. of Schedule I. to this order, and to be subject to the regulations therein contained.

(b.) In respect of leases, and agreements for leases, of the kinds mentioned in Part II. of Schedule I. to this order, or conveyances reserving rent, or agreements for the same, when the transactions shall have been completed, the remuneration of the solicitor having the conduct of the business is to be that prescribed in Part II. of such Schedule I.

(c.) In respect of business not hereinbefore provided for, connected with any transaction, the remuneration for which, if completed, is hereinbefore, or in Schedule I. hereto, prescribed, but which is not, in fact, completed, and in respect of settlements, mining leases, or licenses, or agreements therefor, re-conveyances, transfers of mortgage, or further charges, not provided for hereinbefore or in Schedule I. hereto, assignments of leases not by way of purchase or mortgage, and in respect of all other deeds or documents, and of all other business the remuneration for which is not hereinbefore, or in Schedule I. hereto, prescribed, the remuneration is to be regulated according to the present system as altered by Schedule II. hereto.

3. Drafts and copies made in the course of business, the remuneration for which is provided for by this order, are to be the property of the client.

4. The remuneration prescribed by Schedule I. to this order is not to include stamps, counsel's fees, auctioneer's or valuer's charges, travelling or hotel expenses, fees paid on searches to public officers, on registrations, or to stewards of manors, costs of extracts from any register, record or roll, or other disbursement reasonably and properly paid, nor any extra work occasioned by changes occurring in the course of any business, such as the death or insolvency of a party to the transaction, nor is it to include any business of a contentious character, nor any proceedings in any court, but it shall include law stationer's charges, and allowances for time of the solicitor and his clerks, and for copying and parchment, and all other similar disbursements.

5. In respect of any business which is required to be, and is, by special exertion, carried through in an exceptionally short space of time, a solicitor may be allowed a proper additional remuneration for the special exertion, according to the circumstances.

6. In all cases to which the scales prescribed in Schedule I. hereto shall apply, a solicitor may, before undertaking any business, by writing under his hand, communicated to the client, elect that his remuneration shall be according to the present system as altered by Schedule II. hereto; but if no such election shall be made, his remuneration shall be according to the scale prescribed by this order.

7. A solicitor may accept from his client, and a client may give to his solicitor, security for the amount to become due to the solicitor for business to be transacted by him, and for interest on such amount, but so that interest is not to commence till the amount due is ascertained, either by agreement or taxation. A solicitor may charge interest at four per cent. per annum on his disbursements and costs, whether by scale or otherwise, from the expiration of one month from demand from the client. And in cases where the same are payable by an infant, or out of a fund not presently available, such demand may be made on the parent or guardian, or the trustee or other person liable.

8. In this order, and the Schedules hereto, the following words and expressions shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the 3rd sub-section of Section I. of the Solicitors' Remuneration Act, 1881, viz.:—

Solicitor,

Client,

Person.

* Every transaction exceeding £100,000 to be charged for as if it were for £100,000.

RULES.

1. The commission for deducing title and perusing and completing conveyance on a sale by auction is to be chargeable on each lot of property except that where a property held under the same title is divided into lots for convenience of sale, and the same purchaser buys several such lots and takes one conveyance, and only one abstract is delivered, the commission is to be chargeable upon the aggregate prices of the lots.

2. The commission on an attempted sale by auction in lots is to be chargeable on the aggregate of the reserved prices. When property offered for sale by auction is bought in and terms of sale are afterwards negotiated and arranged by the solicitor, he is to be entitled to charge commission according to the above scales on the reserved price where the property is not sold, and also one-half of the commission for negotiating the sale. When property is bought in and afterwards offered by auction by the same solicitor, he is only to be entitled to the scale for the first attempted sale ; and for each subsequent sale ineffectually attempted, he is to charge according to the present system, as altered by Schedule 2 hereto. In case of a subsequent effectual sale by auction, the full commission for an effectual sale is to be chargeable in addition, less one-half of the commission previously allowed on the first attempted sale. The provisions of this rule as to commission on sales or attempted sales by auction are to be subject to Rule 11.

3. Where a solicitor is concerned for both mortgagor and mortgagee, he is to be entitled to charge the mortgagee's solicitor's charges and one half of those which would be allowed to the mortgagor's solicitor up to £5,000, and on any excess above £5,000 one-fourth thereof.

4. If a solicitor peruses a draft on behalf of several parties having distinct interests, proper to be separately represented, he is to be entitled to charge £2 additional for each such party after the first.

5. Where a party, other than the vendor or mortgagor, joins in a conveyance or mortgage, and is represented by a separate solicitor, the charges of such separate solicitor are to be dealt with under the old system as altered by Schedule II. hereto.

6. Where a conveyance and mortgage of the same property are completed at the same time, and are prepared by the same solicitor, he is to be entitled to charge only half the above fees for investigating title, and preparing the mortgage deed up to £5,000, and on any excess above £5,000, one fourth thereof, in addition to his full charges upon the purchase money and his commissions for negotiating (if any).

7. Fractions of £100, under £50, are to be reckoned as £50. Fractions of £100, above £50, are to be reckoned as £100.

8. Where the prescribed remuneration would, but for this provision, amount to less than £5, the prescribed remuneration shall be £5, except on transactions under £100, in which cases the remuneration of the solicitor for the vendor, purchaser, mortgagor, or mortgagee, is to be £3.

9. Where a property is sold subject to incumbrances the amount of the incumbrances is to be deemed a part of the purchase money except where the mortgagee purchases, in which case the charge of his solicitor shall be calculated upon the price of the equity of redemption.

10. The above scale as to mortgages is to apply to transfers of mortgages where the title is investigated, but not to transfers where the title was investigated by the same solicitor on the original mortgage or on any previous transfer; and it is not to apply to further charges, where the title has been so previously investigated. As to such transfers and further charges the remuneration is to be regulated according to the present system as altered by Schedule II. hereto. But the scale for negotiating the loan shall be chargeable on such transfers and further charges where it is applicable.

11. The scale for conducting a sale by auction shall apply only in cases where no commission is paid by the client to an auctioneer. The scale for negotiating shall apply to cases where the solicitor of a vendor or purchaser arranges the sale or purchase and the price and terms and conditions thereof, and no commission is paid by the client to an auctioneer, or estate, or other agent. As to a mortgagee's solicitor, it shall only apply to cases where he arranges and obtains the loan from a person for whom he acts. In case of sales under the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act or any other private or public Act under which the vendor's charges are paid by the purchaser, the scale shall not apply.

12. In cases where, under the previous portion of this schedule, a solicitor would be entitled to charge a commission for negotiating a sale or mortgage, or for conducting a sale by auction, and he shall not charge such commission, then he shall be entitled to charge the rates allowed by the first column on all transactions up to £2,000, and to charge in addition those allowed by the second column on all amounts above £2,000, and not exceeding £5,000, and further to charge those allowed by the third column on all amounts above £5,000 and not exceeding £50,000, instead of the rates allowed up to the amounts mentioned in those columns, respectively.

PART II.

Scale of Charges as to Leases or Agreements for Leases, at Rack Rent (other than a Mining Lease, or a Lease for Building Purposes, or Agreement for the same).

Lessor's Solicitor for preparing, settling, and completing lease and counterpart:—

Where the rent does not exceed £100 . .	£7 10s. per cent. on the rental but not less in any case than £5.
Where the rent exceeds £100 and does not exceeds £500	£7 10s. in respect of the first £100 of rent and £2 10s. in respect of each subsequent £100 of rent.

Where the rent exceeds £500 . . .	£7 10s. in respect of the first £100 of rent, £2 10s. in respect of each £100 of rent up to £500 and £1 in respect of every subsequent £100.
LESSEE'S SOLICITOR for perusing draft and completing	One half of the amount payable to the lessor's solicitor.

SCALE OF CHARGES as to CONVEYANCES IN FEE, or for any other FREEHOLD ESTATE, RESERVING RENT, OR BUILDING LEASES RESERVING RENT, or other LONG LEASES not at RACK RENT (except MINING LEASES) or AGREEMENTS for the same respectively.

VENDOR'S OR LESSOR'S SOLICITOR for preparing, settling, and completing conveyance and duplicate, or lease and counterpart —

Amount of Annual Rent.	Amount of Remuneration.
Where it does not exceed £5	£5.
Where it exceeds £5 and does not exceed . . £50	The same payment as on a rent of £5, and also 20 per cent. on the excess beyond £5.
Where it exceeds £50 but does not exceed . £150	The same payment as on a rent of £50, & 10 per cent. on the excess beyond £50.
Where it exceeds . £150	The same payment as on a rent of £150, & 5 per cent. on the excess beyond £150.

Where a varying rent is payable, the amount of annual rent is to mean the largest amount of annual rent.

PURCHASER'S or LESSEE'S SOLICITOR for perusing draft and completing	One half of the amount payable to the vendor's or lessor's solicitor.

RULES APPLICABLE TO PART II. OF SCHEDULE I.

As to all Leases, or Conveyances at a Rent, or Agreements for the same, other than Mining Leases and Agreements therefor.

1. Where the vendor or lessor furnishes an abstract of title, it is to be charged for according to the present system as altered by Schedule II.

2. Where a solicitor is concerned for both vendor and purchaser, or lessor and lessee, he is to charge the vendor's or lessor's solicitor's charges and one half of that of the purchaser's or lessee's solicitor.

3. Where a mortgagee or mortgagor joins in a conveyance or lease the vendor's or lessor's solicitor is to charge £1 1s. extra.

4. Where a party other than a vendor or lessor joins in a conveyance or lease, and is represented by a separate solicitor, the charges of such separate solicitor are to be dealt with under the old system as altered by Schedule II.

5. Where a conveyance or lease is partly in consideration of a money payment or premium, and partly of a rent, then, in addition to the remuneration hereby prescribed in respect of the rent, there shall be paid a further sum equal to the remuneration on a purchase at a price equal to such money payment or premium.

6. Fractions of £5 are to be reckoned as £5.

SCHEDULE II.

PART V.

RULES IN LUNACY SO FAR AS THEY RELATE TO COSTS AND PRECEDENTS

ORDERS IN LUNACY, 1883.

SO FAR AS THEY RELATE TO COSTS.

COSTS AND TAXATION OF COSTS.

73. Solicitors shall in matters in which the income of a person who is alleged or found to be lunatic exceeds £200 per annum be allowed the fees according to the "Higher Scale," and in all other cases the fees according to the "Lower Scale," appointed by the Rules of the Supreme Court as to costs for the time being in force so far as the same shall be applicable to such matters, unless the Judge shall otherwise order as to all or any of the parties to such matters.

74. The masters shall be at liberty, by memorandum in writing, to allow to a solicitor for attending on any summons or appointment before them such a sum, not exceeding five guineas, as, having regard to the special nature of the case, they may think reasonable.

75. Where the masters shall not have made and shall not have refused to make any such allowance as last above-mentioned, the taxing master shall take into consideration the circumstances of each case and allow to a solicitor for attending any summons or other appointment such a sum, not exceeding three guineas, as he may at his discretion think reasonable.

76. In all cases not otherwise herein specially provided for, solicitors shall be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees they would be entitled to charge and be allowed for work and labour of a similar character transacted in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

77. Where it is ordered that any costs, or costs, charges, and expenses, be taxed, the taxing master of the Chancery Division in rotation, or the taxing master to whom the taxation of costs in the matter stands referred (as the case may be), is to tax and certify such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses, and also to certify the names of the respective solicitors to whom the same should be paid; and due notice of attending the taxing master on the taxation is to be given to such parties as the masters shall have certified are to attend on the proceedings in the matter; and where it is ordered that the costs, charges, and expenses of any committee or next of kin in the matter of any lunacy be taxed, the taxing master, in taxing such costs, charges, and expenses, is not to allow the costs, charges, or expenses of any petition or application upon which no order shall have been drawn up, or of any evidence in relation thereto, unless the same shall by any order be directed to be allowed or ordered to be costs in the matter of such lunacy, nor to allow the costs, charges, or expenses of or incidental to any proposal or inquiry before the masters which they shall have disallowed or not thought fit to adopt or carry into effect, unless the masters shall have certified that such proposal or inquiry was proper.

On an increase of capital the fees are to be calculated as if forming part of original capital; but no company to pay any greater amount than £50 in respect of capital, whether paid on registration or afterwards.

There is a fee of 5s. payable on recording an increase of capital, in addition to the above ad valorem fees; and for registering any document necessary to be registered, there is a fee of 5s. also payable. On registration of an already existing company, the same fees are payable as on registering a new company, unless the Company was in existence before the Act, and registers under it without limited liability, or had its liability previously limited by some other other Act, in which cases no fees are payable.

The fee stamp on capital must be impressed on the Memorandum of Association.

A 10s deed stamp must be impressed both on the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and the Articles of Association (if any) must also have a 5s. registration stamp impressed.

UNDER TABLE C of the same Act the following fees are payable by A COMPANY NOT HAVING A CAPITAL DIVIDED INTO SHARES.

When the number of members does not exceed . . . 20 £2 0 0

When the number of Members is stated in the Articles of Association to be unlimited 20 0 0

On an increase of members a fee of 5s. for every 50 or less than 50 of such increase is payable.

£20 is the highest fee payable in respect of number of members, inclusive of fee payable on first registration.

On re-registering a Company the same fees are payable as on registering a new Company (except as mentioned in the Act).

For registering any document necessary to be registered except the Memorandum of Association or for recording any fact, a fee of 5s. is payable.

(NOTE.—Under the existing arrangements whereby the Controller of Stamps is also registrar of Joint Stock Companies, any documents may be stamped and registered at one and the same time, if it is presented before 3 o'clock, or on Saturdays before 2.)

PART XIII.

ORDERS AND PRECEDENTS OF COSTS RELATING TO PROCEEDINGS IN BANKRUPTCY.

EXTRACT FROM THE BANKRUPTCY ACT, 1883.

Allowance and Taxation of Costs.

Section 73.

(1.) Where a trustee or manager receives remuneration for his services as such no payment shall be allowed in his accounts in respect of the performance by any other person of the ordinary duties which are required by statute or rules to be performed by himself.

(2.) Where the trustee is a solicitor, he may contract that the remuneration for his services as trustee shall include all professional services.

(3.) All bills and charges of solicitors, managers, accountants, auctioneers, brokers, and other persons, not being trustees, shall be taxed by the prescribed officer, and no payments in respect thereof shall be allowed in the trustee's accounts without proof of such taxation having been made. The taxing master shall satisfy himself, before passing such bills and charges, that the employment of such solicitors and other persons, in respect of the particular matters out of which such charges arise, has been duly sanctioned.

(4.) Every such person shall, on request by the trustee (which request the trustee shall make a sufficient time before declaring a dividend), deliver his bill of costs or charges to the proper officer for taxation, and if he fails to do so within seven days after receipt of the request, or such further time as the court, on application, may grant, the trustee shall declare and distribute the dividend without regard to any claim by him, and thereupon any such claim shall be forfeited as well against the trustee personally as against the estate.

EXTRACT FROM "RULES AND ORDERS OF 1ST DECEMBER, 1883."

94. The bills to be taxed by the bankruptcy taxing masters shall be all bills of costs, charges, fees, and disbursements in matters under the Act (as heretofere have been taxed by the said masters), and all other taxable bills in other matters in which the high court may exercise bankruptcy jurisdiction, and such taxable bills as may be specially referred to them for taxation by any county court, subject to the revision of the court.

98.—(1.) The court in awarding costs may direct that the costs of any matter or application shall be taxed and paid as between party and party or as between solicitor and client, or that full costs, charges, and expenses shall be allowed, or the court may fix a sum to be paid in lieu of taxed costs.

(2.) In the absence of any express direction, costs of an opposed motion shall follow the event, and shall be taxed as between party and party.

99. Every order for payment of money and costs, or either of them, shall be sealed, and be signed by a registrar, and shall be forthwith filed with the proceedings.

100. All costs shall be in the discretion of the court, and shall be paid by such persons as the court shall order.

101. The costs directed by any order to be paid shall be taxed on production of an office copy of such order, and the allocatur being duly stamped shall be signed and dated by the master or registrar taxing the costs.

102. In a county court, costs shall be taxed by the registrar in person.

103. Where the estimated assets of the debtor do not exceed the sum of three hundred pounds, a lower scale of solicitor's costs shall be allowed, namely, three-fifths of the charges ordinarily allowed, disbursements being added, and if in error any charges have been allowed or paid on the higher scale, and the gross proceeds of the assets shall be ascertained not to exceed three hundred pounds, the excess shall be disallowed, and if paid, shall be repaid to the trustee.

104.—(1.) The Board of Trade may require the taxation of the bills of costs, charges, fees, or disbursements of any solicitor, accountant, auctioneer, manager, or other person, where the taxation has been made by a registrar of a county court to be reviewed by a bankruptcy taxing master of the high court, and may appear on the review of such taxation; and where any such review is directed, the registrar of the county court shall forward to such master of the high court the bill which is required to be reviewed, and such master shall review such taxation. If upon the review the bill is allowed at a lower sum than that allowed by the registrar of the county court, the amount disallowed shall be repaid to the trustee.

(2.) The solicitor, accountant, auctioneer, manager, or other person whose bill is directed to be reviewed, shall have notice of the time appointed for such review, and the costs of his appearance thereat shall be allowed to him out of the estate, unless the court otherwise orders.

105. The costs under a bankruptcy petition incurred prior to the first meeting of creditors shall be paid out of the estate in the following order of priority, unless the court otherwise orders, that is to say, first, the ad valorem duty upon the assets realised; next the actual expenses incurred in realising any of the property or assets of the debtor; next the fees payable to any officer of the court in respect of any business done by him under the Act; next, the remuneration of any special manager appointed by the official receiver; next, the taxed costs of the petitioner; and next, the charges of any person duly appointed to assist the debtor in the preparation of his statement of affairs.

106. The solicitor in the matter of a bankruptcy petition presented by the debtor against himself shall, in his bill of costs, give credit for such sum or security (if any) as he may have received from the debtor, as a deposit on account of the costs and expenses to be incurred in and about the filing and prosecution of such petition; and the amount of any such deposit shall be noted by the taxing officer upon the allocatur issued for such costs.

107. Where the joint estate of any co-debtors is insufficient to defray any costs or charges properly incurred in respect thereof, the court, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, may order such costs or charges to be paid out of the separate estates of such co-debtors or any one or more of them. The court may also order any costs or charges properly incurred for any separate estate to be paid out of the joint estate if, in the opinion of the court, it shall be just so to do.

(This is under special circumstances sometimes increased to £1. 1s.)

XIV.—COSTS TAXABLE BY THE TAXING OFFICER OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS, AND MODE OF PROCEEDING.

The costs taxable by the Taxing Officer of the House of Lords are—

All costs, charges, and expenses, including the expenses of witnesses, of and incidental to the preparation, bringing in, and carrying through Parliament any railway or other local and personal Bill and any estate or other private Bill, or any provisional order or provisional certificate, and the costs, charges, and expenses incurred in opposing any such Bill, provisional order or provisional certificate. Such costs are taxed either under the provisions of the 12 & 13 Vict. c. 78, and the 28 & 29 Vict. c. 27, or upon a requisition of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, or by the Local Government Board, or upon a requisition from either of the courts in England, Ireland, or Scotland, or at the request of the parties interested in the same.

All costs, charges, and expenses of or incidental to appeal cases in the House of Lords —Such costs are taxed under an order or judgment of the House, and in pursuance of a standing order, or upon a requisition from either of the courts, or at the request of the parties interested in the same; such costs being taxed either as between party and party, or as between solicitor and client, as the case may require.

All costs, charges, and expenses, including the expenses of witnesses of and incidental to establishing claims to peerages and claims to vote.—Such costs are taxed upon a requisition from either of the courts or at the request of the parties interested in the same.

The Mode of Proceeding.

When the costs are to be taxed under the provisions of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 78, a copy of such costs, with an indorsement thereon stating that a copy of such costs had been duly served upon A. and B., who are the parties liable to pay the same, and requesting an appointment to tax, must be deposited in the Taxing Office of the House of Lords, and due notice of an appointment to tax will be sent from the Taxing Office to each party.

When costs are to be taxed under the provisions of 28 & 29 Vict. c. 27, a copy of such costs (with an indorsement thereon stating that the provisions of Section 3 of the above Act, so far as the same relate to the delivery of the bill of costs to the party chargeable with the same, have been complied with, and requesting an appointment to examine and tax the same), must be deposited in the Taxing Office; and such application must be made to the Taxing Officer within the time limited by the said section of the said Act.

The bills of costs which are referred by either of the Courts are usually exhibits in the Court by which they are referred, in which case there is indorsed on the back of the original bill a requisition in the following words:—

The Master of the Rolls, Chief Clerk, Taxing Master of the Court of (or as the case may be) requests the Taxing Officer of the House of Lords to tax the within bill of costs, and to report to him the amount at which he has allowed the same.

(Signed) A. B.

NOTICE.

Any Parliamentary agent, attorney, solicitor, or other person applying for the taxation of any bill of costs, charges, and expenses incurred by him in promoting or opposing any private Bill, provisional order or provisional certificate, in Parliament, is desired to deposit in the office of the Taxing Officer, at the time of making such application, a copy of such bill of costs, charges, and expenses, with the several items added up and the amount ascertained and set out, together with a declaration signed by him stating that such bill of costs, charges, and expenses has been duly delivered to the parties charged therewith (naming the parties), in conformity with the Taxation of Costs Acts, 1847 and 1849, or the Act for Awarding Costs, 1865, as the case may be.

Any application for such taxation should, in the first instance, be made to the Taxing Officer of the House in which the Bill to which the same relates commenced, or opposition had, or in which costs have been awarded in pursuance of the Act for Awarding Costs, 1865.

Taxing Office, House of Lords,
February 1st, 1876.

COSTS RELATING TO APPEALS TAXED UNDER A JUDGMENT OR ORDER OF THE HOUSE AND STANDING ORDER No. 10.

Applications must be made by depositing in the office of the Taxing Officer a copy of the bill of costs, with an indorsement thereon stating that "a copy of this bill of "costs was on the day of served "upon A.B., the agent for the appellant or the respondent, "as the case may be, and we hereby, request that an appoint- "ment may be made to tax the same."

Dated this day of 187 .

A.B.,
Agent for the Appellant or Respondent,
as the case may be.

To the Taxing Officer of the House of Lords.

NOTE.—Costs relating to appeals are also taxed upon a requisition from the Master of the Rolls, &c., as in costs relating to private bills, provisional orders, and provisional certificates.

The Taxing Office is open throughout the Session, and from the first Monday in the month of December in each year.

Taxing Office, House of Lords,
10th June, 1879.

B. S. R. ADAM,
Taxing Officer.

FORMS OF BILLS OF COSTS revised in conformity with the APPELLATE JURISDICTION ACT, 1876, and which are applicable to all APPEALS, &c., presented to the HOUSE OF LORDS on and after the day of August, 1883.

PART XVI.

ORDERS RELATING TO AND PRECEDENTS OF COSTS IN COUNTY COURTS.

COUNTY COURT PRACTICE.—NOTE.

The County Courts Consolidated Orders of 1875-1876, and the scales and schedules, still regulate the practice. There are, however, a few directions on the subject of Costs in rules 9–12 of 1880, and 13-17 of 1883, and there is also the Act of 45 and 46 Vict., c. 57—s. 2 of which repeals s. 91 of 9 and 10 Vict., c. 95, the effect of which is to get rid of the restriction upon Solicitors' costs on debts under 40s., whilst the scales limit them on debts of larger amount. Sec. 5 of the same Act enables a Judge to give costs on the higher scale, notwithstanding the amount recovered—under certain circumstances ; sec. 4 also deserves attention of the practitioners. Then the Supreme Court Order LXV. R. 4, respecting the costs of actions sent for trial to the County Court—see page 23, should be referred to

ALLOWANCES TO WITNESSES IN COUNTY COURTS.

COUNTY COURT ORDERS 1875.

Gentlemen, merchants, bankers, and professional men, per diem	from	£0	15	0	to	1	1	0
Tradesmen, auctioneers, accountants, clerks, and yeomen, per diem	from	0	7	6		0	15	0
Artizans and journeymen, per diem .	from	0	4	0		0	7	6
Labourers, and the like, per diem .	from	0	3	0		0	4	0

Travelling expenses, sum reasonably paid, but not more than 6d. per mile one way.

If witnesses attend in more than one cause, they will be entitled to a proportionate part in each cause only.

NOTE.—It is considered to be unnecessary to give any rule with respect to taking acknowledgments of married women, as it is the duty of the solicitor employed to prepare the certificate and affidavit, and swear to the latter ; and the course to be followed by the Judge is laid down in the Act 3 and 4 W. 4, c. 74. The only duty for the registrar to perform, beside that of swearing the solicitor to the affidavit, is that of putting his initials against all alterations, interlineations, or erasures either in the certificate or affidavit.

ORDER X.—COUNTER OR OTHER CLAIM.

Any additional costs occasioned by a counter or other claim shall be taxed, and may be allowed as if such claim had been made by a separate action, except that no item shall be allowed for any charge which has been allowed in respect of the original action or the defence thereto.

The registrar is to tax the bills of costs of defendants upon the lower scale when the subject matter does not exceed £100, and upon the higher when it exceeds £100, or the action is brought under either section 11 or 12 of the County Courts Act, 1867; and the bills of costs of plaintiffs upon the lower scale when the sum recovered or the subject matter does not exceed £100, and upon the higher when the sum recovered or the subject matter exceeds £100, or the action is brought under either section 11 or 12 of the County Courts Act, 1867, unless in either case the judge shall otherwise order.

Costs in actions under the County Courts Act, 1856, section 23, shall be taxed according to the scale of taxation used in the High Court of Justice, so far as it is directly applicable; and where it is not so applicable, the principle of that scale shall be followed.

As to special allowances of costs, see Order XXXVI.

We, George Lake Russell, John Bury Dasent, John Worlledge, Rupert Alfred Kettle, and William Furner, being Judges of County Courts appointed to frame rules and orders for regulating the practice of the courts, and forms of proceedings therein, under the 32nd section of "The County Courts Act, 1856," have by virtue of the powers vested in us thereby and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, framed the foregoing rules and scales of costs, and we do hereby certify the same to the Lord Chancellor accordingly.

G. L. RUSSELL.
J. B. DASENT.
J. WORLLEDGE.
RUPERT KETTLE
W. FURNER.

I approve of these rules and costs to come into force in all County Courts on the second day of November, 1875.

CAIRNS, C.

TREASURY ORDER REGULATING COURT FEES, 1875.

In pursuance of the powers given by "The County Courts Act, 1856," "The County Courts Act, 1865," "The County Courts Act, 1867," "The Companies Act, 1867," and "The County Courts Act, 1875," and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, we, the undersigned, two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby, with the consent of the Lord Chancellor, order that, on and after the second day of November, 1875, the several fees, or sums in the name of fees, specified in the Schedules hereunder written, shall be taken on the proceedings therein mentioned, in lieu of all other fees for the proceedings set forth; and that the fees so authorised to be taken, with the exception of the fees for keeping possession of goods, and with the exception of the fees mentioned in Schedule (B), shall be received by the registrars of the different County Courts, and shall be accounted for and paid over by them to the treasurers of their respective courts, or where there is no treasurer, the superintendent of County Courts, and that the fees set forth in Schedule (B) shall be received by the registrars for the use of themselves and the high bailiffs, according as the duties are to be performed by the registrars or high bailiffs.

MAHON.
ROW. WINN.

I approve of the annexed schedule of fees.

26th October, 1875. CAIRNS, C.

[An order or rule referred to in the following schedules shall mean the order or rule so numbered in the County Court Rules, 1875.]

SCHEDULE A.

For every plaint or petition, one shilling in the pound.

Where the claim or demand exceeds forty shillings, and an ordinary summons is to be served by bailiff, an additional fee of one shilling.

Where in any case the number of defendants shall exceed three, an additional fee of one shilling for each defendant above three.

No fee shall be payable on any application for a new trial, or to set aside proceedings, or for a summons in an interpleader.

For entering judgment by consent under sects. 8 or 9 of "The County Courts Act, 1850," or under a default summons, one shilling in the pound on the amount claimed in the summons.

For every hearing, two shillings in the pound.

In all cases where the defendant shall, either personally, or by his solicitor or agent, admit the claim, one half of the fee paid by the plaintiff for the hearing of the plaint shall be returned to the plaintiff by the Registrar of the Court, although the Court may have been required to decide upon the terms and conditions upon which the claim is to be paid.

An additional hearing fee shall be taken for every new trial.

The hearing on interpleader shall not be prepaid, but shall be estimated on the amount of the money or the value of the goods claimed, which value, in case of dispute, shall be assessed by the judge, who, at the hearing, shall direct by whom and when and how such fee shall be paid.

No fee shall be payable for hearing any application for a new trial, or to set aside proceedings.

For issuing every warrant against the goods, eighteenpence in the pound on the amount for which such warrant shall issue.

For issuing every warrant to deliver possession of tenements, eighteenpence in the pound.

For every judgment summons under the Debtors Act, 1869, threepence in the pound on so much of the amount of the original demand as, in obedience to the order of the court, should have been paid at the time of the issue of the summons.

Where such last-mentioned amount does not exceed twenty shillings, an additional fee of sixpence; and where such amount does exceed twenty shillings, an additional fee of one shilling.

For every hearing of the matters mentioned in such judgment summons, sixpence in the pound on the amount upon which the fee on the summons is calculated.

For issuing every order of commitment, eighteenpence in the pound on the amount upon which the fee on the summons is calculated.

For keeping possession of goods till sale, per day (including expenses of removal, storeage of goods, and all other expenses), not exceeding five days, sixpence in the pound on the value of the goods seized, to be fixed for appraisement in case of dispute.

In all plaints, all poundage, except where otherwise specified in this schedule, shall be estimated on the amount of the claim.

In plaints under sections 11 and 12 of "The County Courts Act, 1867," poundage shall be estimated as upon a claim for a sum of twenty pounds.

In replevins, all poundage, except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the alleged rent or damage to be fixed by the Registrar.

In plaints for the recovery of tenements when the term has expired or been determined by notice, all poundage, except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the weekly, monthly, or yearly rent of the tenement, as such tenement shall have been let by the week or by the month, or for any longer period; and if no rent shall have been reserved, then on the amount of the half-yearly value of the tenement to be fixed by the Registrar.

Where a claim for rent or mesne profits, or both, is added to a plaint for the recovery of a tenement, an additional poundage shall be taken, on the amount or amounts so claimed, but where thereby the total amount on which poundage would be taken shall exceed twenty pounds, the poundage shall be estimated on twenty pounds only.

In plaints for the recovery of tenements for non-payment of rent, all poundage except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the half-yearly rent of the tenement.

Where a counter or other claim is made under Order X. of the County Court Rules, 1875, the same fees shall be taken as upon the entry and hearing of a plaint.

In proceedings under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," "The Literary and Scientific Institutions Act, 1854," and "The Metropolitan Buildings Act, 1855," the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute, and if no amount is in dispute, or if the amount in dispute is not ascertained, then as upon a claim for a sum of twenty ponnds.

In proceedings under "The Succession Duty Act, 1853," the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute.

In proceedings under "The Friendly Societies Act, 1875," or under any Act giving the Court jurisdiction in any matter, such other Act not being a County Court Act, the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute.

In the above cases where the poundage would, but for this direction, be estimated on an amount exceeding twenty pounds, it shall be estimated at twenty pounds only.

In every case where the poundage cannot be estimated by any rule in this schedule, it shall be estimated on twenty pounds.

All fractions of a pound, for the purpose of calculating poundage, shall be treated as an entire pound.

No increase of fees shall be made by reason of there being more than one plaintiff or defendant, except as before directed, where the number of defendants exceeds three.
